"ANOTHER GOOD MAN GONE WRONG."

Brought Back by McNichol.

"A weary wanderer I return,
A sort of shiftless Enoch Arden;
And feel my cheek with hot shame burn
As I walk into 'Annie's' garden;
No Philip Lee is here to boast
That he my wife—my place has taken;
I walk in flesh and am no ghost,
Although as wife was long forsaken.

"Life's was too hard—I left for this,
A coward—slayed but to relieve her;
To live alone on just one kiss,
With debt and sorrow all to press her;
Twin babies, too—so like us both—
It would have shamed a stony image;
And that is why I swore an oath
To get killed somehow in a scrimmage.

"Yet fate was kind or unkind—which?
I came back living but to seek her;
I find her well off—almost rich,
But sweet as ever—kinder, meeker;
'For Jem,' she says, 'The Lord was kind,
He never left me to my sorrow;
To all His good we had been blind,
Folks trust the Lord not for to-morrow.

"Wicked I saw in me to sigh,
When I sat round me whet his sickle,
And others fell—while truly I
Had only got to seek McNichol;
Assistance gave he—all my need,
My little home I furnished neatly;
And lucky have I been indeed,
His weekly plan saved me completely.'"

Ah, woman! woman! To what do we not owe thee—as mother, sister, wife and sweetheart? This man went to work with stout heart, seeing how his wife's noble strength had been rewarded, and all is well with him, as with others who try this generous plan of weekly payments with for the May term of the United States District Court for the Eastern Division of the Eastern District of Missouri:

John W. Black, Hornersville, Dunklin County; Benj. Jones, St. Clair, Franklin County; Fred Hendricks, Washington, Franklin County; Marcus A. Wolff, Jr., St. Louis city; Albert B. Bowman, St. Louis city; Wm. Wortheimer, St. Louis city; J. D. Sanders, Mine La Motte, Madison County; Gorman O. Hall, St. Louis city; Wm. Walker, Bloomfield, Stoddard County; Wm. J. Crutcher, Essex, Stoddard County; G. M. Pile, Alamode, Reynolds County; Thos. F. Colfax, St. Louis city; Alex Moore, Kirkwood, St. Louis County; E. O. Pickering, St. Louis city; W. F. Chamberlain, St. Louis city. Wm. T. Davis, Wright City, Warren County; Frank E. Fowler, St. Louis City; J. R. Reavis, Puxico, Stoddard County; C. S. Coleman, Kirkwood, St. Louis County; Arnold Withmar, St. Louis City; J. R. Triplett, St. Louis City; Wm. Douglas, St. Louis City.

Judge Thayer named Mr. Albert B. Bowman for foreman, and turning to the jurors delivered

THE FOLLOWING CHARGE:

GENTLEMEN OF THE GRAND-JURY: Whilst in this court it will be your duty to investigate offenses committed against the laws of the United States committed within this judicial district of the United States, as distinguished from offenses committed against the laws of the State. You are doubtless familiar with the ordinary offenses that are tried in the Federal courts—such as prosecutions for violation of the internal revenue, postal and pension laws as well as prosecutions for counterfeiting the national coin and for forging Government currency and other securities.

In addition to offenses of that character which fall within your jurisdiction, there are of course many other offenses against the laws of the United States too numerous to be mentioned in detail.

I direct your attention to two kinks of offenses in addition to those last referred to. You are aware that foreigners become naturalized citizens by complying with the provisions of laws that have from time to time been adopted by the general Government. You are also aware that both the State and Federal Courts are authorized to grant naturalization papers, providing the applicant first makes an oath regarding his intention to become a citizen and furnishes proof of his residence in this country for the requisite period, or proof that he came to this country before he was 18 years of age and continued to reside here till he attained his majority.

Now section 5,424 of the Revised Statutes of the United States provides in substance that every person applying for naturalization and every person appearing as a witness for such applicant who falsely makes any oath or affidavit or certificate required or authorized to be made by any law relating to naturalization shall be deemed guilty of a crime and punished therefor.

…all your attention to these laws and re-…you to inquire diligently and carefully … offenses as … described … within this judicial district, as the investigation of such offenses falls appropriately within your jurisdiction, and as it is important that the naturalization laws of the United States shall not be violated with impunity.

Under what are termed the election laws of the United States numerous offenses are also defined—thus by sec. 5,512 of the Revised Statutes of the United States it is provided in substance that if a person does any unlawful act to secure an opportunity to vote at an election for a Representative in Congress of the United States he shall be deemed guilty of an offense, and by sec. 5,512 it is declared to be an offense to fraudulently register at any registration of voters for an election for a Representative in Congress.

As Congress has not provided for the registration of voters in anticipation of a Congressional election and has made very few provisions concerning the conduct of such elections, but has left both matters to be regulated by the respective States, it most generally happens that in determining whether a person has done an unlawful act to secure an opportunity to vote, or whether he has fraudulently registered reference must be had to the State laws concerning registrations and elections.

Speaking generally, I may say that any person who violates the laws of the State concerning registration, as by registering in an election precinct where he does not reside, or by registering from a place where he does not reside, if the registration takes place in a city like the City of St. Louis, commits an offense against the laws of the United States, if the unlawful act is done to secure an opportunity to vote at a congressional election.

Offenses of this description fall appropriately within your jurisdiction as Grand-jurors serving in the Federal Court, and I trust you will give your careful attention to any such alleged violation of the Federal election laws as may be brought to your notice.

It is unnecessary, I think, at this time to give you any further directions as to the extent of your jurisdiction, or to call special attention to any other class of offenses against the Government.

The District Attorney will doubtless call your attention to all such violations of Federal laws as are known to the prosecuting officers of the Government that in his judgment merit your attention, and it will be for you duly to investigate all cases thus brought to your notice by the District Attorney.

If any member of the Grand-jury is aware of any criminal violation of the laws of the United States it will be his privilege to call the matter to the attention of his fellow-jurors and to the District Attorney to the end that all such cases may also be investigated and that indictments may be found if the accusations prove founded.

THE FEDERAL STATUTE

referred to by Judge Thayer in his charge as covering the offenses is as follows:

Sec. 5424. Every person applying to be admitted a citizen, or appearing as a witness for any such person, who knowingly personates any other person than himself, or falsely appears in the name of a deceased person, or in an assumed or fictitious name, or falsely makes, forges, or counterfeits any oath, notice, affidavit, certificate, order, record, signature, or other instrument, paper or proceeding required or authorized by any law relating to or providing for the naturalization of aliens; or who utters, sells, disposes of, or uses as true and genuine, or for any unlawful purpose, any false, forged, ante-dated, or counterfeit oath, notice, certificate, order, record, signature, instrument, paper or proceeding above specified; or sells or disposes of to any person other than the person for whom it was originally issued any certificate of citizenship or certificate showing any person to be admitted a citizen, shall be punished by imprisonment at hard labor not less than one year nor more than five years, or by a fine of not less than three hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

THE NATURALIZATION FRAUDS were numerous and bold. Under the Federal laws a foreigner arriving in this country under the age of 18 years is, after a residence of five years, entitled on application to “minor citizens' papers,” on which they are entitled to vote without delay. These papers containing the conditions which must be sworn to by the witnesses, read as follows:

——— Term, 1888.

——, a native of ——, aged —— years, who applies to be admitted a citizen of the United States, comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court, by the testimony of —— and ———, two credible witnesses, citizens of the United States, that he arrived in the United States a minor, under the age of 18 years; that he has resided in the United States at least five years, including the years of his minority, and in the State of Missouri at least one year immediately preceding this application, during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; and the said applicant declaring in open court, upon oath, that for three years last past it has been his bona fide intention to become a citizen of the United States, and he declaring also, upon oath, that he will support the Constitution of the United States and that he doth absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign power, prince, potentate, State or sovereignty whatsoever and particularly to the —— of ——, of whom he is at present a subject, therefore, the said —— ——is admitted a citizen of the United States.

These witnesses were exceedingly active. Some of them appeared for as many as fifty alleged applicants for citizens' papers, swearing in each instance to the facts required to fill out the conditions imposed by this paper. The wholesale style in which citizens were made by the employes of both political parties may be inferred from the following figures: In the Criminal Court, within twenty days, 743 persons secured minor papers and 641 persons secured second papers. In the Court of Crimininal Correction, within thirty days, 1,196 persons secured minor papers and 950 secured second papers.

The feature of this wholesale naturalization business presenting a criminal appearance was that in securing the papers for minors the same men appeared for dozens of applicants, swearing in each case that the applicant had arrived in this country before attaining the age of eighteen years. In many cases this necessitated an acquaintance extending over twenty years. A preposterous phase of the frauds, which would doubtless have struck the Judges of the State court had it not been for the volume and confusion of business, was that numbers of the applicants supposed to have resided in this country for five years and over could not speak a word except in their native tongues. To procure the evidence of the frauds is not a difficult task. The persons who secured their papers in this manner were registered at the Recorder's office. Through this they can be traced and if the Grand-jury is earnest in its work the hundreds who obtained papers through the fraudulent misrepresentations of politicians can be called before the jury and the evidence in each case can be elicited within five minutes. In the one case in which prosecution was instituted by the Federal officials when the POST-DISPATCH first exposed the fraud Ernest John, the principal witness, mysteriously disappeared. By seeing that the witnesses obey their mandates the Grand-jurors can easily prevent such results.

The fees for the issue of most of these papers were paid by the Central Committees of the parties.

DESTROYING THE EVIDENCE.

As far as was in its power the Republican City Central Committee has destroyed the evidence of its connection with the wholesale citizenship business, and quite a scandal has been caused thereby. Just before the November election the Executive Committee of the Republican City Committee met every day. Chairman John McFall, Sheriff John H. Pohlman, Ford Smith, Treasurer Matt Kohring, Louis Wittenberg and Thomas C. Martin of the Central Committee attended these meetings. The employes of the committee were furnished with blanks. These were filled out with the name of the person brought up for citizen's papers and turned over to the Clerk of the Court as a claim against the committee for the naturalization fee of $1.50. The Citizens' Republican Committee, which raised the big fund for the campaign, had authorized the committee to draw on it for the purpose of securing naturalization papers for voters in the course of organization. No arrangement was however, made to check the returns of the committee, one of the members of which to-day described the proceeding as follows: “When the committee would meet Smith or Pohlman would produce a bundle of these orders. Pohlman would take up the bundle and immediately the motion would be made that the Clerk of the Court of Criminal Correction or Criminal Court be paid the amount of claim for citizen papers. The packages were held together with rubber bands. They were returned as 200, 400 or 600, nobody counting them and nobody knowing how many there actually were in the bundle. As soon as the motion passed, the next motion made, often by the Chairman himself, was: 'I move these be destroyed.' Before the motion was seconded discussed, put or even fully made the bundle shot up to the gas jet or over the coal oil lamp and the flames were reveling in the loose end of the slips. There was no auditing of the accounts, no comparison with the record of papers issued in the courts. The whole thing was very unbusiness like. The fund was drawn against, as per the announcement of indebtedness, based on the destroyed vouchers. The transactions in the committtee room have been kept secret and I don't suppose the citizens who contributed for the naturalization fund know to this day how it was expended. There was no reason why these should have been destroyed. If they had been preserved these slips would be evidence in the investigation about to be inaugurated.

SUMMONING WITNESSES.

This afternoon the Federal Grand-jury began preparations for the investigation. Subpœnas were issued for Judge J. C. Normile of the Criminal Court, Mr. P. M. Staed, Clerk of the Criminal Court, and his deputies who will present the records to the Grand-jury.

Mayor Noonan, who occupied the bench of the Court of Criminal Correction last October, Mr. Michael Kenefick, clerk of the court, and his deputies, Messrs. Fitzgerald and Belhartz, will also be summoned to explain how that tribunal was utilized by the politicians in the wholesale making of citizens.

AN OPIUM DEN

Raided by the Police Last Night and a White Woman Discovered Smoking.

Last night about 10:50 o'clock Policemen McGuire and Ready made a raid on an opium-smoking den conducted by two Chinamen named Billy Lee and Pong Fung in the rear of No. 16 North Ninth street. They found the door locked when they tried to get in, but forced it open and discovered a white woman, in a shamefully indecent condition, lying on a cot, smoking with the two proprietors of the place. All three were very much under the influence of the drug. They were taken to the Four Courts and locked up. The woman gave her name as Mary Ellis, and her residence at 813 Chestnut street. This morning their cases were called in Judge Cady's court and continued until the 14th inst., the woman being released on bail. She claims it was her first visit to the place. The officers, however, think differently. The place which she gave as her residence is a “furnished rooms” house.

The officers who made the raid last night have been spotting the place for some time and have reason to believe, they say, that the Ellis woman is not the only white woman who has been in the place. The Chinamen, they believe, have been trying to induce young girls to visit the place. Pong Tung was brought here from Cincinnati by Lee to help him conduct the place, Lee having rented the room in the rear of Sin Lay's laundry before sending for him. The room is well situated for a place of the kind, as entrance can be obtained in three different ways—through the laundry, through a wagonway on the side of the laundry and through the alley running between Eighth and Ninth streets. The officers entered by the alley way last night, and their presence about the place was not known until they forced the door. They confiscated the pipes and opium which they found on a stand near the improvised cot. The Chinamen in the laundry profess ignorance as to whether the opium den was frequented by white women.

WARM AND WINDY.

Thunder Storms To-Night and To-Morrow the Probabilities.

The following synopsis of the weather was prepared for the POST-DISPATCH by the Signal Service to-day:

The location of the center of the low barometer has moved very little during the night but the pressure has continued to decrease steadily, until this morning the barometer at Huron, Dak., indicates the extremely low pressure of 28.90, which is an inch below the normal. This depression in the pressure is the cause of the high southerly winds reported in the Missouri Valley and on the upper lakes, St. Louis having a velocity of thirty-six miles per hour at 2:30 p. m. yesterday, with a prospect of a higher velocity to-day. The precipitation accompanying this storm has been comparatively slight as yet and the heaviest fall of rain coming after the storm center had passed. Rain was falling this morning at 7 o'clock at Des Moines, Kansas City and at several stations in Dakota. The temperature in Illinois, Indiana, Eastern Iowa and Missouri remains high with generally partly cloudy weather with good prospects of rain. In the States farther west the temperature has fallen about twenty degrees. Rain has fallen in Nebraska, Western Iowa, and Dakota. The outlook for this vicinity is warm windy weather with good indications of local thunder-storms to-night or to-morrow.

PULPIT DECLARED VACANT.

The Central Baptist Church Congregation Has Done With Rev. Anderson.

The members of the Central Baptist Church, corner of Twenty-third and Morgan streets, held a business meeting last evening. Nearly 300 members were present. The object of the meeting was to hear the report of the committee appointed to investigate the causes of Rev. S. P. Anderson's sudden departure and take action thereon. This committee was composed of Messrs. Stokes, Doran and Gilbert, and they confirmed the various charges which have been made against the pastor. A resolution was then offered declaring all obligations of the church to or with Rev. Anderson canceled and the pulpit of the Central Baptist Church vacant. A standing vote was called for on the resolution and it was adopted. 221 members rising when the affirmative vote was called for. There is very little sympathy for the absent pastor. His whereabouts are still unknown to his trusting flock.

MEMORIAL DAY CEREMONIES.

Preparations for Decorating the Soldiers' Graves at the National Cemetery.

The St. Louis posts of the Grand Army of the Republic have been making elaborate preparations for the Memorial Day ceremonies, which will take place on May 30. From present indications, the Grand Army will muster stronger than ever before. Gen. A. J. Smith has been appointed grand marshal; Col. Nelson Cole, chief of staff, and Col. John B. Gandolfo, adjutant. A number of posts from Missouri and Illinois have signified their intention of joining in decorating the graves at the National Cemetery at Jefferson Barracks and it is expected that between 3,500 and 4,000 Grand Army veterans will appear in line. To these will be added about 350 Sons of Veterans. A number of bands have been engaged for the occasion and the Arsenal Band will meet the veterans at the entrance of the military reservation. The St. Louis posts will proceed to the National Cemetery both by boat and train.

WON'T PLAY THE “STALL”

MAYOR NOONAN OBJECTS TO THE METHODS OF CERTAIN POLITICIANS.

His Time and Talents to Be Given to the City Service—Office-Seekers and Confidence-Game Officials Will Not Be Permitted to Monopolize Him—A Warning Posted.

The Mayor was unusually busy this morning with a multiplicity of matters which needed his immediate attention. He was at his office at 10:30 o'clock and gave orders to Secretary Meade not to allow anything but official business to pass the door, which order was strictly enforced, much to the discomfort of a crowd of between fifty and one hundred office-seekers and others who were standing around waiting for a turn to say a word to the Mayor in person.

At 11 o'clock when the Board of Public Improvements was in session the Mayor made a break through the crowd and reach the board room. He waited upon the Board to offer his services to them, stating that either as Mayor or President of the Police board, he would be happy to work in conjunction with them on the street sprinkling difficulty, which was just now giving a good deal of trouble. He said that the sprinkling was not being done as it should be and that if there was anything he in his official capacity could do to help matters along he would gladly do it. The hungry horde of office seekers, as the Mayor terms them, was given another set back this morning by having the following notice stuck up before them in the Secretary's office, where all might read and be instructed:

KEEP OFF THE GRASS!

MAYOR'S OFFICE, St. Louis—I want to say a few words to those who are seeking places in the city departments. In the first place, as I have plainly stated before, there are no offices in my gift, and will not be for two years, or nearly that time. In case any vacancies occur I shall know who to appoint and will need no suggestions or advice on that score.

There are many matters at this time of importance to the city which command my attention, and I must be left free to devote my time to these interests, and not be harrassed by office-seekers.

The new City Hall, the settlement of the gas problem and the message will for the present occupy all my time, aside from the routine duties of the Mayor's office.

There are no offices in sight nor are there likely to be until the time mentioned above. Men who hold offices in the public service seldom die and never resign.

While these remarks are intended in all kindness, I am also firmly resolved to act in accordance with the ideas above outlined. I feel convinced my friends will receive these remarks in the spirit in which they are offered, and fully appreciate my reasons for promulgating them. EDWARD A. NOONAN, Mayor.

MAYOR NOONAN REMARKS.

Speaking of the matter the Mayor said: “There is one thing connected with that notice which is not posted upon it, but which is giving me a good deal of trouble, and that is the out and out confidence game which a number of city officials lately elected and a number who have been in office some time are working on me. They are striving, and with success in many cases, in making political capital out of me and don't even offer to divide. In the most cold-blooded manner imaginable they bring dozens and dozens of their friends, who wouldn't mind having nice offices, to me and introduce them. Many of these introductions, which are forced upon me, are the outcome of promises made by the officials at or before election time. They having told their friends that in case the elections went right they would bring them up and introduce them to the Mayor and say a good word for them. In this way they at my expense and lay up a goodly store of good will for future compaigns and elections. Then, in the matter of signing applications and recommendations for positions they are as conscienceless as can be; nearly every application I get has a batch of signatures of city officials which appear on nearly all that come in. They work this application business on me to an unlimited extent. I do not pay any attention to them, but still they come, and the manufacture of favor goes on at my expense, while I am constantly being put in the position of offending through no fault of mine, but through the remorseless insistence of the officeholders.”

The invitation of the American Library Association extended to the Mayor, through F. M. Crunden, of the Public School Library, was accepted by Mayor Noonan, and he will address them at the opening of their convention to-morrow.

GONZALES, THE EX-CONVICT.

The Thief Released for Acting as Executioner at Gibraltar.

NEW YORK, May 7.—“Gonzales has been released for acting executioner.”

This was the cable dispatch from Gibraltar about the ex-convict who arrived on the Steamship India, that puzzled the authorities at Washington the other day. They supposed there was an error in it and that it meant that Gonzales had been released by the acting executive officer at Gibraltar. It was discovered yesterday that the cable was literally correct. Gonzales, alias “Monkey,” robbed a baker's shop in the town of Gibraltar, for which he was sentenced to ten years penal servitude. When he had served three years of his time, the prison officials found themselves with a condemned murderer on their hands and nobody to hang him. They offered to commute the sentence of any prisoner who would act as executioner. Gonzales volunteered, and when the time came he did the hanging in the most approved fashion, thereby gaining his liberty. He is still locked up on board the India and at a special meeting of the emigration commissioners to be held to-day they will decide whether he may land or not.

RAILROAD NEWS.

The Canadian Railroad Investigation—An Important Suit Decided.

NEW YORK, May 7.—The Senate Committee, which is investigating the working of the interstate commerce law, resumed its labors at the Fifth Avenue Hotel promptly at 10 o'clock this morning. Senator Platt has been added to the Senators present yesterday and the committee to-day is composed of Chairman Cullom and Senators Platt, Hiscock, Blair, Harris, Gorman and Reagan. Chauncey M. Depew of the New York Central and General Manager Joseph Hixon of the Grand Trunk Railroad were in attendance, and a dozen or two spectators helped to fill the large parlors. Chauncey M. Depew was the first witness called to the chair. Many of his statements showed that he agreed on several points with the opinions of the two previous witnesses, Commissioner Fink and President John King of the Erie road. Mr. Depew gave his opinions on the workings of the interstate law and to a question as to what amendment he could suggest to the present interstate law in order to protect the American roads, Mr. Depew said that the roads doing business in this country, whether Mexican or Canadian, should be made to comply with the conditions of the law as the American roads must do. At present, he said, it was very easy for the Canadian roads to get large quantities of freight by means of rebates. “Pooling,” he considered a good thing and should have been permitted. The tendency of all roads is to lower freight rates, and no amount of “pooling” could affect this tendency. The interstate commerce bill by making the roads publish their rates had given the stronger roads more business and taken it away from the weaker roads proportionately.

Chairman Cullom questioned Mr. Depew closely as to the practice of using Canadian cars on American roads and vice versa. From Mr. Depew's answer it appears that American and Canadian cars are used indiscriminately on both sides of the line, without regard to the imposition of custom duties upon them, although the Grand Trunk Line uses ten American cars on its line where the Central uses one of the Grand Trunk's cars, making the proportion, therefore, about ten to one.”

Senator Platt: “Don't you think it would have been better if goods destined to points within the United States border had never been allowed to go through Canada?”

Mr. Depew: “If you go back to that, yes, but the thing is now an existing fact.”

A Proposed New Line.

OMAHA, Neb., May 7.—G. W. Wicker was at Union Pacific headquarters yesterday consulting with General Manager Kimball and Traffic Manager Miller concerning the right of way of another railroad through the city of Denver, and of gaining an entrance to the Union Depot at that place. The visitor was supplied with a profile, and pointed out the route through the city. In this the right of way of the Colorado Central is crossed, and some valuable land of the Union Pacific at Denver is being sought by the new enterprise. Mr. Wicker declines to give the name of the proposed new line.

ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE.

The Manufacture of Binding Twine by Convicts Recommended.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 7.—The House to-day advanced to third reading the McClanahan bill providing for statutory prohibition. An attempt was made to kill the bill by striking out the enacting clause, but this failed by a vote of 51 to 66. If the bill is pushed with energy there is a fair chance of its passage.

The Commissioners of the Joliet Penitentiary in compliance with a joint resolution submitted their report to the House to-day, showing the result of their investigation as to the cost of manufacturing binding twine at the State's expense by utilizing convict labor. They heartily recommended the plan and ask an appropriation of $373,250 for the purchase of a plant and to pay all necessary expenses for the first two years. According to their report binding twine thus manufactured by the State will cost the farmers 14 cents per pound or less.

The Senate adopted the adverse report of the Appropriations Committee on the claims of Rokker & Co. of this city as the balance due under the celebrated fraudulent contract of two years ago. The Campbell bill amending this law in relation to the public printing was passed. It is designed to prevent fraud in the letting of the public printing contracts.

A DETECTIVE'S DISCOVERY.

Two Innocent Men Arrested for the Murder and Robbery of a Farmer.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 7.—A startling exposure has been made by Detective Howard of a local agency in connection with the murder and robbery of Farmer Umberger, in Somerset County, a few weeks ago. Two brothers, David and Joe Nicely, are awaiting trial, charged with the crime. Detective Howard alleges that a scheme has been concocted to fasten the crime on two innocent persons. It is the intention, he says, to arrest Collins, Hamilton and Joseph Hoffman, a few days before the trial. These men resemble the Nicely brothers, and Hamilton was once before arrested on suspicion. In the house of Hamilton will be discovered a gray wig similar to the one worn by one of the robbers, and in the house of Hoffman will be found one of the stolen purses containing $11,000 of the $13,000 stolen. The sceme, the detectives allege, is to go before the court, present the wig and purse, and claim that the Nicelys are innocent, and that Hamilton and Hoffman are the criminals.

TRAGEDY IN A DINING-CAR.

A Colored Waiter Fatally Shot by the Colored Cook.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 7.—About 6:45 o'clock this morning an altercation occurred in the Michigan Central dining-car Detroit in the Central yards, east of the depot, between Thomas Smith, a cook, and Josh Johnson, a waiter, both colored. Johnson spilled a cup of coffee into a pan of potatoes that were being cooked by Smith. After some hard words had passed Johnson threw a butter-dish at Smith, badly cuting his fingers, when Smith drew a revolver and fired at Johnson, causing a probably fatal wound in the back of the left ear. Smith went to his home, where he was arrested.

Encampment at Columbia, Mo.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

COLUMBIA, Mo., May 7.—Quite a number of Columbia's citizens assembled this morning to witness the departure of the University Cadets for their second annual encampment. The troops made a fine appearance in their uniforms, as with banners flying they marched to the strains of martial music to the camping ground, a short distance from town. The encampment will last a week and close with a sham battle. The strictest military discipline is enforced during the period.

REAL ESTATE NEWS.

HEAVY SALE OF PROPERTY NEAR M'PHERSON AND TAYLOR AVENUES.

Nearly One Thousand Front Feet Sold by John G. Priest Near De Hodiamont—Important Meeting at the Real Estate Exchange—Other Sales and Building Association Items of the Day.

The sale of a very desirable piece of West End residence property, situated on the west side of De Hodiamont avenue partly fronting on Page, and all of it in close proximity to the St. Louis Cable & Western Railway, is reported by Col. John G. Priest, the grantor in the transaction, who sold the ground, aggregating 688 feet front, at $10 a foot, to Charles Kuhn, who made the purchase for another party, whose identity in the transaction is concealed for the present. The site is splendidly situated in one of the most prosperous sections of the progressive West End of the city, where more houses have been built within the past five years than in any other quarter. Rose Hill, Horton, Bartmer and Hamilton places are in that vicinity, and it is well known that lots there have sold all the way from $12 to $30 a foot. The excellent railway facilities have added very much to the development of all that region, and the way it keeps on improving gives ample security of a much greater advance in prices. The ground Mr. Priest sold is all within the city limits and constitutes the whole of city blocks No. 3840, the northern half of block 3844, 116 feet front of block No. 3848 of which last mentioned piece there is a frontage of 96 feet on Page avenue, all of it being located along the west line of De Hodiamont avenue and also partially fronting upon Minerva and Ridge avenues.

MADE ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS PROFIT.

It was rumored in real estate circles that John Dwyer made a private sale of his property at the southeast corner of McPherson and Taylor avenues, which he purchased a few weeks since at $51 a foot. Mr. Dwyer could not be found, but it was stated that he had realized a profit of $1,000 on his purchase. The ground he bought and which is now said to have been resold has a frontage of 100 feet on McPherson avenue, and therefore, according to report, the ground must have sold at about $60 a foot for the McPherson avenue front.

MR. A. D. BROWN'S PURCHASE.

Another sale in the same locality, only one block south of it, that is on Taylor avenue, west side, between Berlin and Maryland, adjoining the magnificent residence and grounds of H. J. Linnemann, was closed to-day at $70 a foot. This sale is reported by the firm of Adam Boeck & Co., who sold for Adolph Moll, the grocer, who has nearly doubled his money in the transaction, as he bought the ground a couple of years ago, before there was much talk of extending the Olive street cable out that way, and before many people appreciated the fact that the locality was destined to shortly become a rival to the choicest residence places. Mr. Boeck, who perfected the sale says the property was sold to A. D. Brown of the Hamilton-Brown Shoe Co. and that he will occupy the site with a residence to cost not less than $10,000. Mr. Linnemann once owned the ground, and when he sold it to Mr. Moll his deed of conveyance stipulated that no future owner should build more than one house on the premises fronting 113x200 feet. This was done to prevent the construction of cheap houses and tenements in that neighborhood, where Mr. Linnemann was first to expend any considerable sum of money for improvement.

THE REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE.

The newly elected Board of Directors of the Real Estate Exchange held a meeting yesterday afternoon, the President, Judge John H. Terry, presiding, and all the members being present. All but two or three of the members of the Exchange, the President says, have paid the annual dues, and these delinquents are considering the propriety of paying up in a few days. The financial condition of the institution is now in good shape. All its debts have been paid since the new board took charge of affairs, and an indebtedness of $700 created and left standing by the old board when it retired has been liquidated.

Wm. Lang was created assistant secretary.

As a means of creating a revenue it was proposed to revise the advertising patronage of the institution, which once very remunerative, has been neglected until it has dwindled down to almost nothing. There is yet great hope, the President says, that the Legislature will pass the bill providing for the holding of legal sales at the Exchange, and if success crowns the efforts that have been made to obtain this much needed reform, he predicts that the Real Estate Exchange will shortly afterwards become one of the principal institutions of influence in the city.

CONFIRMATION DOUBTFUL.

The Commissioners' sale of property known as the Benton Park saloon, fronting 123½ feet on the east side of Jefferson avenue by a depth of 117½ feet on the south side of Wyoming, which took place yesterday afternoon under the direction of C. H. Franke & Son, resulted in the purchase of the premises by Lewis and Armenia Thiet for $8,000. The property includes a three-story brick building and an ordinary one-story frame house in the rear. There was a good attendance at the auction, but it is claimed that the bidding was by no means satisfactory and that it is doubtful whether the Probate Court confirms the sale.

The unsightly foundations that have encumbered a splendid building site on the north line of Morgan street just west of Grand were purchased yesterday with the ground, 34x135 feet, at $60 a foot by L. J. Adler, who proposes improving the place with a $4,000 residence. E. W. McMurray was the grantor. Chas. H. Turner & Co. consummated the sale.

AUCTION SALES.

On Thursday next, commencing at 4 o'clock on the premises, twelve lots of 50 feet each, situated on Easton and Union avenues, and nine lots of 50 feet each on Theodosia and Arlington avenues, are to be sold by the Hammett-Anderson-Wade Real Estate Co., which has conducted several large and very successful land sales already this spring out in that direction.

Next Saturday at 4 o'clock on the premises L. L. Hull & Co. will offer at auction twenty-one lots of the Philip Scott estate situate on Cook and Finney avenues, between Whittier and Pendleton. The lots are 25 feet front by a depth of 140, to a 20-foot alley.

BUILDING ASSOCIATIONS.

A. A. B. Woerheide, Secretary of the Girard, says that association loaned $6,600 at 25 per cent premium last evening to members who are going to buy property already improved. This association, now eleven months old, has loaned $62,800, of which moneys fifteen houses have been built at an average cost of $2,500 each.

The Peabody, only two years old, makes a splendid showing. Up to April 8 it loaned $601,000 at a net gain on earned premiums of $4.31 upon each share of its capital stock.

John Maguire, Secretary of the Granite, says that association now 18 months old has loaned $50,000 at an average of 20 per cent premium, out of which money nine houses have been built at an average cost of $2,000 each.

Will Be Asked to Reconsider.

In the House of Delegates to-night a motion will be made to reconsider the vote by which the House refused to empower the Committee on Elections and Registrations to send for witnesses and papers and to go into the contest of Mr. H. C. Grawe for the seat held by Delegate James P. Eagan of the Seventeenth Ward. Originally the House was in favor of seating Mr. Grawe, but the majority now refuse to even go into an investigation of the merits of his claims.

Club Meetings.

The Nineteenth Ward Harrison Club will hold a regular meeting to-night at 1910 Market street.

The Eighth Ward Regular Republican League Club met last night and elected new officers for six months. John Frame, President, and C. G. Niemeyer, Secretary, were re-elected by a large majority. The meeting was largely attended, over sixty members being present. A resolution was passed censuring the elected city officers for not recognizing the Eighth Ward in the distribution of places.

JOHN FURLONG IS DEAD.

The Injuries Inflicted on Him by Toughs Prove Fatal—Arrests Made.

Ex-Private Watchman John Furlong is dead, and a case of murder will be made out against James Hayes, Frank McGary, Pat Kane and John King, who are now confined in the City Jail, charged with assault with intent to kill. Furlong died at the City Hospital about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, having been unconscious from the time he was assaulted until he died. On the night of Thursday, April 3, the policeman walking the beat on Fifteenth street came upon the deceased lying on the sidewalk near Franklin avenue. Furlong was unconscious and covered with blood. It was not until he was removed to the hospital that he was recognized as John Furlong, an ex-private watchman, who for five years was the terror of the toughs and hoodlums in the vicinity of O'Fallon and Fifteenth streets. His skull was found to be fractured and his face and body were one mass of bruises and welts. An effort was made by the physicians in attendance to save the man's life by a dangerous operation on the skull, but their efforts proved unavailing, and the murderous intentions of his cowardly assailants were realized. Furlong was assaulted by four men. Residents in the vicinity of where he was found on the night of the 3d state that they saw four men run away from the scene, and it is but natural to presume that they lay in wait for their victim, pounced upon him from the rear, struck him down like a dog and then, in their murderous ferocity, beat and kicked his prostrate form. No direct or conclusive evidence could at the time be obtained concerning the identity of the thugs, but the police worked diligently and innumerable arrests were made, suspicion finally centering on the quartette now under arrest. These latter men are hard characters, having been concerned in crimes, brawls and misdemeanors in their neighborhood for years past. Times without number they have been under arrest, and fines have been imposed on each man oftener than he has fingers and toes upon which to enumerate his various offenses. Furlong, on the contrary, was always known as a quiet and peaceable citizen, dangerous only when imposed upon or attacked. Six years ago he was given a license as private watchman, but so great was his hatred for thugs and hoodlums that he was always in trouble with the latter class, as many a broken head can testify. A year ago he used his revolver hastily while making an arrest and his license was revoked. He had made many enemies in his time and his life has been threatened on various occasions. To "get even" with Furlong was the ambition of more than one ward bum. The murdered man was 28 years of age and has two brothers in this city, one of them being employed at the Meacham Arms Co., and the other having been but recently ordained as a priest in the Assumption Church. The inquest was held this afternoon in the Coroner's office.

A NEGRO MURDER.

Will Wills Dies From Wounds Inflicted Last Night by "Boots" Turner.

Will Wills, the negro who was stabbed last night by John Jacks and "Boots" Turner, in a fight which originated in a court-yard between tenement houses on Ninth street, near Market, and similar dwellings fronting on the alley, running between Tenth and Eleventh streets, died about noon to-day at the City Hospital from the effects of his wounds. One of his assailants John Jacks is in the hospital suffering from wounds which Wills inflicted in self-defense, so his friends claim, while the other, "Boots" Turner, is in jail and will be held with Jacks to answer a charge of murder. The story of the row which culminated in the killing is briefly as follows: Last evening when Will Wills returned from his work at Liggett & Meyers' factory he found the courtyard, situated as described above in the center of a lot of tenement houses occupied by colored people, full of his neighbors and friends sitting out to enjoy the cool air. As he started to go up a flight of steps in the middle of the courtyard, one part of which is higher than another, John Jacks attempted to pull him down. He told him to quit as he didn't want to get hurt. Jacks, however, continued to pull him toward him and Wills got mad and they started to fight. Jacks, according to the story of Sam Wills, a brother of the murdered man, and Nellie Graham, an eye witness, drew a knife and Wills followed suit. They cut at each other, and Jacks managed to run up to a cellar door where Turner was sleeping and wake him to get his assistance. "Boots" sprang up and drew his dirk, George Bush, a half brother of Will Wills and Sam Wills, his full brother, attempted to assist, but having no weapons, their assistance did not amount to much. Will Wills was cut a number of times, but the wound which proved fatal was a cut in the throat, inflicted, it is said, by Turner.

THE BIG FOREST FIRES.

FARMERS AND LUMBERMEN IN THE NORTHWEST SUFFER GREAT LOSS.

The Fires Raging in All Directions—Buildings, Crops and Timber Consumed by the Flames—Rain the Only Hope of the Farmers—A Milldock Burned—Residence Destroyed—Fires.

DULUTH, Minn., May 7.—Reports of the destruction by forest fires continue to come in. The fires are still raging in all directions, but in many localities they have burned themselves out. They have attacked the heavy pine woods in many places and the loss of timber will be immense. All trains on roads leading here from every direction tell of the long lines of fire passed through. The greatest loss is in the destruction of railroad ties, telegraph poles and cordwood. Several hundred thousand ties and thousands of cords of wood have been burned. So far news has reached here of the destruction of a dozen buildings; three near Barnum, a dozen miles west of here, and others in Wisconsin. Joseph Bradford's wood camp and two camps near Norman were wiped out. From a score of small places come accounts of fighting the fire to save the villages or mills. There was a rumor yesterday that a small saw mill in Douglass County, Wisconsin, had been burned, but no news could be had to confirm it. The most destruction has been on the lines of the St. Paul & Duluth and the Northern Pacific.

Raging in Every Direction.

EAST SAGINAW, Mich., May 7.—In Northern Michigan no rain has fallen in several months, and as a result fires are raging in every direction, threatening destruction to property and heavy losses to lumbermen and farmers. In Midland, Clare, Gladwin and Osceola Counties flames are running through timber and over uncleared farms, and in several places men, blinded by smoke, are working in brigades trying to check the progress of the fire. North of this city yesterday nearly a mile of forest burned. The flames, fanned by a brisk south wind, are rapidly sweeping everything before them. Dangers from the same source are also reported from Huron County along the line of the Saginaw, Tuscola & Huron Railroad. In the vicinity of Bay Port, on the shores of Wild Fowl Bay, the greatest trouble exists. Near Loomis two barns, a valuable house, blacksmith shop and granary, all the property of M. T. Bailey, a lumberman of the city, burned, involving a loss of $4,000, with partial insurance. Five miles north of the same place Thomas McKinley lost a barn and contents, valued at $600, with no insurance.

A Residence Destroyed.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., May 7.—A fire occurred in this city to-day at noon in which the handsome residence of Conductor Marshall was destroyed and some of the surrounding buildings slightly damaged. A defective flue was the cause. Loss estimated at $6,000, which is mostly covered by insurance.

A Mill Dock Burned.

LUDINGTON, Mich., May 7.—A. E. Carter's mill dock was fired last night from a passing tug. Four hundred thousand feet of inch and piece lumber and 200,000 shingles were burned. The schooner Dawn, loading at the dock, was slightly damaged before being towed away. The wind was blowing a gale, and the firemen, at last accounts, were working hard to save the mills.

RENT DAY AT UNION MARKET.

Deputy Collector Ungar Gets the City's Revenue Out of Stand-Keepers.

To-day was "rent-day" at the Union Market, and as it comes but twice a year it creates a stir. The city was represented by five men, Terry Martin, the Market Master, Carl Ungar and another clerk from the Collector's office and two clerks from the Comptroller's office. The market-master, being acquainted, takes the lead like a constable in an Irish eviction and raps each renter to his front door so as to be ready for the collector. There are about sixty butcher stalls and 150 vegetable stands, and to cover the market in one day requires quick work. A crowd generally follow the collector and make good humored remarks about paying the rent and questioning the quality of the money given. That peculiar trait of the market man and market woman, handed down through ages, always manifests itself on "rent days" and the collectors hear nothing but a steady "kick" about the rent and grumbling about "taking the profits from the business" from one end of the market to the other. The rent varies according to location from $60 a year to $740 a year, and the collections to-day amounted to about $8,000. It is a notable fact that those enjoying the cheapest rents are the hardest kickers. An incident occurred which showed how the renters feel towards the collector. An old German had his rent of $100 nicely done up in a package of fives and tens and gave it to Mr. Ungar. It was $10 too much. After counting it Mr. Ungar said: "This is not right."

"Yes, it is; yes, it is," said the German.

"But I say it isn't," replied Ungar. "See now, one, two, three"—

"Dot's all righd. I gif you the righd money. If it's not righd it's your fauld. No, no; I wond look. Go vay. Go vay."

"But it's $10 too much," Ungar said, extending the money.

"Mein Gott. Gif me dot. Gif me dot," and he snatched the greenback like a hawk. While tucking it away in his pocket-book he said: "Dot's turreble, turreble. He nearly cheated me once." He never thought of Ungar's honesty in making known the amount over.

THE GAS STOCK SALE.

The Transfer Completed—Names of the St. Louis Stockholders.

The gas deal which was first announced in the POST-DISPATCH, and brought to a close yesterday, was the subject of universal comment on Third street, and the advantages and disadvantages of the trade as regards St. Louis was closely considered in every broker's office in the city. The identity of the purchasers was the principal topic of discussion, and none were able to solve the problem as to who Hollins & Co., the New York brokers who negotiated the sale both of the gas trust certificates and of the Laclede stock, were acting for.

A call was made upon John H. Blessing, who said that he believed he could solve the riddle in part.

"I have been watching this matter from its inception," said Mr. Blessing, "and think I can name the St. Louis parties interested in the deal. They are John R. Lionberger, Charles Gibson, W. H. Thompson and Mathews & Whitaker. I am reasonably certain that all these parties were interested in the sale, and that they are large stockholders of common stock in the new company."

David Ranken, Jr., one of the holders of the old St. Louis Gaslight stock, called upon Mr. Blessing and requested him to hold his stock until further orders. Mr. Ranken is by no means satisfied with the terms of the transfer, and a lawsuit is by no means impossible.

Special Tax-Bill Judgments.

Three judgments in special tax-bills suits were entered by default in Judge Klein's court to-day in favor of the city. One was against the Protestant Cemetery for $41.40, one against Jane Lindsay for $31.70 and one against Taussig et al. for $47.60.

A FIERY HORROR.

Five Persons Perish in a Burning Residence—Lost Both Legs.

WESTCHESTER, N. Y., May 7.—The dwelling-house of Watson Bownes was destroyed by fire about half past 1 o'clock this morning and five persons were burned to death. The household consisted of Watson Bownes, his wife, his mother, Mrs. T. B. Bownes, and two children and two servants. Just how the fire started is not known, but it is supposed that a lamp, which was left burning in the hall, exploded and started the flames. When Mr. Bownes was awakened by the crackling of the flames, the fire had already gained great headway and the house was filled with smoke. Bownes immediately gave the alarm and started to carry his wife into the open air. In doing this he was severely burned about the feet and body and Mrs. Bownes was also burned about the head, neck and shoulders. While Bownes was rescuing his wife he could plainly hear cries of agony from his mother and two children, who were sleeping with their grandmother; but he was unable to save them, and they perished. The two children were aged 3 and 5. Kate Dunn, a servant, and her sister Amie, who came to visit her last night, also perished. The Empire Engine Co., whose building is directly across the street from the scene of the fire, turned out and assisted by the villagers tried to extinguish the fire, but their old-fashioned machine was of little use, and the building was burned to the ground. A desperate effort was made by the firemen and villagers to rescue the inmates, but Mrs. Bownes, senior, and the two children were dead before they could be got out. The little ones were in their grandmother's arms. The Dunn girls were also dead when taken from the building. Mr. Bownes is a Free Mason and is being cared for by the fraternity. It is feared that his wife's injuries will result fatally.

A Terrible Explosion.

ASHLAND, Pa., May 7.—A fatal explosion occurred near here this morning. R. J. Malone & Co., contractors of New York, are engaged in driving a tunnel from Big Mine Run to Dark Corner, to drain off water which stands in and about Centralia. At 2 o'clock this morning, while the workmen were engaged in drilling holes in the rock for the purpose of blasting, one of the drills struck some dynamite which had failed to explode in a previous blast. An explosion immediately followed. James Kentzler of New York was instantly killed and several others were seriously injured. The injured are: Thomas Flynn of Girardville, John Carroll, Patrick Carroll and Thomas Navin of Big Mine Run, and Thomas Tretan and two others (names not learned) of Homesville.

Lost Both Legs.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 7.—George Jones, a colored boy, 14 years of age, living in this city, in attempting to board a freight train fell under, the cars running over both legs, crushing them severely. He was brought here and both his legs were amputated by Drs. Thompson and Thorpe. He is now doing well, and hopes of his recovery are entertained.

A Sawmill Disaster.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 7.—Dispatches from Freedom, Pa., report an explosion of a portable boiler at Teaxel's sawmill, three miles miles back in the country, yesterday, resulted in the death of Frederick Davidson of West Bridgewater, and the serious injury of his father. The mill was badly damaged. The cause of the explosion is not known.

A Fatal Blast.

TOWER, Minn., May 7.—Two men were struck by a blast at the Minnesota Mine yesterday. John Oleson was killed and Nelson Johnson fatally injured. Both men were at the bottom of the pit.

EAST ST. LOUIS AND BELLEVILLE.

Postmaster Vonnahane's Son Missing—Municipal Appointments in Belleville.

Postmaster Joseph Vonnahane reported at police headquarters late last evening that his 4-year-old son had been missing from home since morning. The police are actively searching for the lost child, but up to noon had not yet succeeded in tracing his whereabouts. It is feared that some mishap has befallen him.

Andy Orr, Mary Jones and Mat Hunter were all run in at a late hour last night for disturbing the peace of the people residing in the new Seventh Ward. A charge was also preferred against the trio for being inmates of a disreputable house.

Albert Albrecht was arrested at a late hour last night for trespassing in the I. & St. L. R. R. yards. This morning he was given a preliminary hearing before Justice Bunyan and fined $3 and costs for the offense.

A new colored Baptist Church will soon be erected in this city. Solicitors are at present busily canvassing the city.

The case of M. F. Tissier, editor of the Herald, vs. the city of East St. Louis for refusing to grant him a certificate giving him the right to act as Justice of the Peace of that city to which position he alleges he is lawfully entitled according to the State laws of Illinois, is set for trial during the next session of the Supreme Court at Mount Vernon, Ill.

Willie Lickendieck, 6 years of age, who got lost from his home in East St. Louis yesterday afternoon, was found by the police this morning in the vicinity of the National Stock Yards, and restored to his parents.

Frank Ragatz was fined $20 and costs by Police Magistrate Davis, yesterday afternoon for assaulting a little boy named William Sullivan.

The Ohio & Mississippi Railroad depot and freight house at Caseyville Township, a short distance from East St. Louis, together with the residence of George Haig, caught fire at about 4 o'clock this morning and both were destroyed. Loss $9,000.

Belleville.

Joseph Mantle, aged 24, of Caseyville and Miss Courtney Hilt, aged 20, of O'Fallon were granted a marriage license this morning.

A stranger entered Kanzler Bros'. store on North Illinois street at a late hour last evening and purchased $2.20 worth of groceries, giving in payment for the same a check on the First National Bank for $70, which was signed by Block & Co. He claimed to be an employe of the Block & Hartmann Smelting Works, and said he had received the check as his wages for a month. Besides receiving the groceries from the Kanzler Bros. he procured $10 in cash and a bill for $57.80 and then left the store. It has since been learned that this check was a forgery, and the police are now searching for the forger.

The City Council met last night and the following new officers were appointed by the Mayor: Herman Oster, City Marshal; Otto Kaysing, Police Captain; Richard Emery, Police Sergeant; Conrad Jaeckel, Ernest Schmale, Albert Nentzling, Louis Saeger, Cassius Neighbors, John Rauth, George Kreitner, A. M. Houser and Henry Winker, patrolmen; Wm. Branch, Market-master; Louis Klein, Chief of the Fire Department; Peter Mathews, driver of hose reel No. 1; Ben Kaeser, driver of hose reel No. 2; George Wright, driver of hose reel No. 3. Several more appointments will be made at the next meeting of the Council.

At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors held yesterday a committee of five was appointed to investigate the present state of affairs at the County Farm.

Mr. James D. Baker, County Treasurer, yesterday made application in the County Court for judgment against the owners of the lands and lots described in the delinquent tax list. Judge Hay ordered that all objections be filed by 9 o'clock a. m. Thursday.

PARNELLITES PUZZLED.

THE IRISH LEADER MODIFIES HIS ADMISSION TO WEBSTER.

The Statement Fails to Make a Good Impression—No General Public Comment—Success of the Great French Exposition—Progress of the Samoan Commission—The Demands of the American Commissioners.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

LONDON, May 7.—The leading Liberals decline to commit themselves to any expression of opinion about Parnell's admission of last Friday, pending his re-examination, which Russell will conduct himself. A similar reserve is exhibited by the newspapers. The Unionist writers brought the point out strongly in their reports the next day, but otherwise there has been no public comment whatever except in the Pall Mall Gazette. This makes the effect of the incident on public opinion more remarkable. In a large London store yesterday I heard one assistant say to another, "Well, what do you think of your Parnell?" This is the typical effect on a man in the street. The Parnellites are puzzled and annoyed. People in court saw the obvious annoyance on Russell's and Lewis' faces. The incident is not important in itself, but everyone who knows the English temper saw that Parnell's brutal frankness would be very injurious to him. Some of his friends remonstrated with him afterwards. He failed to catch the English point of view.

"It was a life and death struggle then, and I did try to mislead the House. Why should I not confess it?"

The fact is the English Liberals had begun to canonize Parnell too much. His great score on the forged letters; his successful parrying of Webster hitherto, and his correct attitude since the Gladstone alliance made him appear a paragon of moderation. This incident revives his earlier character of an Irish irreconcilable and opinion rebounds. I have just come from the Commission Court, which opened to-day with a personal explanation by Parnell. The drift of it was that consulting "Hansard," the official Parliamentary record, he found he meant in 1881 to refer to ribbon societies only, and that as applied to them his general statement was fairly accurate. Webster postponed further questions till he had had time to consult "Hansard." This explanation is tenable, for immediately after saying "secret conspiracies don't exist," Parnell went on to instance ribbon conspiracies. The court listened with deep silence, but I judged from the slightly contemptuous expression on the judges' faces that the explanation failed to make a good impression.

W. M. STEAD,
Editor Pall Mall Gazette.

Germany.

BERLIN, May 7.—The Vossische Zeitung says that the American Commissioners to the Samoan Conference are instructed by their Government to demand the neutrality of the islands and the administration of Samoan affairs by Samoans and to urge the claim of the United States to the right to establish a coaling station at Pago-Pago. The demands of the United States, however, are not intended to prevent the other powers from exercising their influence in accordance with their interests.

THE AUGUSTA VICTORIA.

HAMBURG, May 7.—The Hamburg-American line's new twin screw steamer, Augusta Victoria, has arrived here from her trial trip, which was very satisfactory, she having attained a speed of twenty knots per hour. When the Augusta Victoria proceeded on her trial trip she was incorrectly reported as having sailed for New York. She will sail for that port on the 9th inst.

France.

PARIS, May 7.—Twenty-five thousand persons visited the exposition yesterday. During the opening ceremonies the police arrested three men for shouting "Vive Boulanger." The evening festivities in celebration of the opening of the Exposition passed off without a hitch.

England.

LONDON, May 7.—At the annual meeting of the National Liberal Club Mr. Parnell was elected a life member of the club by a large majority.

MISSOURI LEGISLATURE.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 7.—Most of the Senators were promptly in their seats this morning and a number of absent members of the House present at the first roll call to-day. The Senate passed the bill appropriating $7,050 to pay for the services of the members of the Board of Equalization for the years 1876 to 1886 and intervening years, inclusive. This bill is the result of the recent decision of the Supreme Court in the case of McGrath vs. the State Auditor, in which the Court held that the members of the board were entitled to extra pay for this ex-officio duty.

Kelley's mechanics' lien House bill was taken up and passed.

The House amendment to the electoral reform bill, which the Senate last Saturday failed to concur in, was reconsidered and concurred in to-day by a good majority. The House amendment provides only that the six election judges shall be distributed equally between the members of the two dominant parties at the last previous election in said voting precinct.

The Senate revisory dramshop bill was called up and passed, when the Senate went into Committee of the Whole to consider the House general appropriation bill, Senator Hazell in the chair.

The House this morning adopted a joint resolution to adjourn at Wednesday noon, the 15th inst. The resolution, on being reported to the Senate, was promptly referred to the Committee on Revision, which, correctly interpreted, means its certain defeat, as the Senate Revision Committee is opposed to adjournment until the work of revision is completed, which can not be done by the 15th inst.

The House passed the Senate bill to provide for collating and publishing the new Revised Statutes just before noon, by adding an amendment which provides that the members of the revision on the part of the House shall be divided politically, three Democrats and two Republicans. The Senate portion of the committee will remain as now constituted. Considerable speculation is indulged in over the personnel of the next House committees, which will be determined by a caucus of both parties, the Democrats naming three and the Republican caucus two. Jim Moore of Laclede and either Kelly of Johnson or Bothwell of Pettis will be the Republicans.

The House passed the university appropriation bill to-day, with a rider requiring the removal of Prof. Sanborn, Dean of the Agricultural College.

The revised dramshop bill which passed the Senate to-day contains all the essential restriction features of the Deering bill except the high license provisions. It was so reconstructed that its friends, Senators McGinnis and McGrath, both voted against it. It provides among other things that no billiard table, dice, cards or other devices for gaming shall be kept either in or about a saloon.

Miss Maria F. Klier and Valentine Ballinger were married at 9 o'clock this morning by Father Schindel at St. Boniface Church.

Mrs. Eliza Kehnlein left last evening for her home in Taylorville, Ill., after a brief visit to her relatives in this portion of the city.

Shortly before 6:30 o'clock this morning an alarm from box 412 at Broadway and Bowen street, called out Engine Co. No. 2 to extinguish a fire on Broadway and Elwood streets. When the firemen arrived they found that a two-story brick building known as Blumenthal's block was all ablaze. The wind, which was blowing at a gale threatened destruction not only to the row, which is a long, two-story brick building, but to several frame dwellings in the immediate neighborhood. The firemen got down to work, and by careful judgment succeeded in keeping the fire confined to the northern part of the building. After an hour's hard fight the fire was out. The roof was totally destroyed, as was also a portion of the north wall. Aug. Blumenthal's residence, 5900 South Broadway, was also slightly damaged.

The origin of the fire is supposed to be due to a spark from a passing locomotive. The damage to the row, which is known as 5904 and 5906, is estimated at $1,200, fully insured in the Caro[illegible] Home Mutua[illegible]

THE FRIEND'S ADVICE.

"Don't give up, my poor, sick friend,
While there's life there's hope, 'tis said;
Sicker persons often mend;
Time to give up when you're dead."

"Purer, richer blood you need;
Strength and tone your system give;
This advice be wise and heed—
Take the G. M. D. and live."

"These letters stand for 'Golden Medical Discovery' (Dr. Pierce's), the greatest nutritive, tonic and blood-purifier of the age."

"You have been told that consumption is incurable; that when the lungs are attacked by this malady, which is scrofula affecting the lungs and rotting them out, the sufferer is past all help, and the end is a mere question of time. You have noted with alarm the unmistakable symptoms of the disease; you have tried all manner of so-called cures in vain, and you are now despondent and preparing for the worst. But 'don't give up the ship' while Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery remains untried. It is not a cure-all, nor will it perform miracles, but it has cured thousands of cases of consumption, in its earlier stages, where all other means had failed. Try it, and obtain a new lease of life."

Formal Opening of the Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 7.—The Johns Hopkins Hospital at Monument Stand, Broadway, was formally opened this morning. It is one of the finest and most complete institutions in the world, embracing seventeen buildings, covering four acres of ground and surrounded by ten acres more of beautiful park, which will afford healthful exercise to the patients. Its construction was begun more than ten years ago and the total cost was $2,050,000. To the munificence of one man Baltimore owes this great institution—the late Johns Hopkins. It was he also who founded and provided for the Johns Hopkins University. Over 1,200 invitations to attend to-day's ceremonies were sent to persons in various parts of the United States exclusive of those issued to Baltimoreans. [illegible] were delivered by Francis T. THE POST-DISPATCH Forest Park Mis-n appeals to the popular heart. It will a great work this summer.

-y TREASURER FOERSTEL seems to n unaccountable aversion to sign-s name to receipts of deposits.

President ought to find some way iving Baby MCKEE a whack at official pap. The most popular member of the Harrison household should not be neglected.

IF City Treasurer FOERSTEL attends to the other business of his office as he attends to the receipts of contractors the records of the Treasury will be unique when he gets through with them.

TO GIVE poor children a few outings in Forest Park this summer will be equivalent to giving them health and in many cases even life. Who can refuse to contribute these priceless boons to suffering little ones?

THE Committee on Appropriations in the Senate has inserted a clause in the general appropriation bill providing $20,000 for the support of militia. This clause should be in the bill when it is signed by the Governor

IT will be an easy thing to furnish Forest Park play grounds with swings, sand piles and a variety of other equipments sufficient to keep 10,000 children in a happy and wholesome state of amusement all day long.

THE bill against option dealing was not e of the fifteen returned with the Gov-nor's approval yesterday. He has until next Monday to compare it with the bucket shop law, and if it seems to be as ineffectual as that law he may sign it.

THE exposures made by the POST-DISPATCH last February of naturalization and other frauds, in connection with the November elections, were this morning made the subject of a special charge by Judge THAYER to the first Federal Grand-jury that has since been convened in his court.

PRESIDENT HARRISON should now appoint his Democratic brother, JOHN SCOTT HARRISON of Kansas City, to a nice office. In this way he can kill two birds with one stone. He can show that he is a thoroughly partisan President and another member of his family at the ne time.

'ONLY the interests of the public service should suggest removals from office," said the letter of acceptance. ut the official notice kindly informs re-oved clerks that they are not removed r any fault, but "for reasons of a politi-l nature." Not a word about the in-rests of the public service.

THERE will soon be cable-car, horse-car d steam-car facilities enough to take l the little ones of St. Louis to Forest ark any day, and the SUNDAY POST-ISPATCH's Forest Park Mission is bound be a great success. The Sunday-schools n make a success of it, and there can be no better means of attaching the children to the Sunday-schools.

THE Republican organs are forced to acquiesce in the appointment of the President's Republican brother CARTER to a good fat office. But if he should similarly favor his Democratic cousin CARTER of Illinois or his Democratic brother, J. SCOTT HARRISON of Missouri, on angry outcry gainst nepotism would be heard arising om the Republican ranks all over the ion.

ITS pay being stopped, the General Assembly seems to be dying of absenteeism. With barely a quorum meeting in either ouse only the unopposed bills can pass. ere is no power to make members serve ithout pay, and un...

Nothing as yet done can atone for the failure of the work of revision.

THE person who seemed to be least affected by the plain truths of Bishop POTTER's famous address was the man to whom they were most applicable. If President HARRISON was insulted by the good Bishop, he went to Washington and made the insult more glaring by committing the grossest act of nepotism of which a President can be guilty. The President seems to be as impervious to shame as he is liable to insulting comparison.

ALL the governments of Europe officially condemn the existence and origin of the French Republic by forbidding their representatives at Paris to participate officially in the Exposition commemorative of the revolution of 1789. But no former Paris Exposition in which the monarchies participated officially through their ambassadors, kings and princes, was ever attended by so many exhibitors and visitors from other European countries.

AS THE chairman of the Democratic National Committee is not to be chosen until February 22, 1892, it is silly to get up a raging controversy over the selection so far ahead. It serves, however, to show the readiness with which some Democratic editors can favor the selection of Democratic plutocrats who are business partners of the Republican plutocrats, against whom the same editors are continually raising the cry of "wolf."

FOURTEEN bids for street improvement work out of twenty-one reported to the Board of Public Improvements to-day must be rejected on account of blunders made in the receipts of deposits by the City Treasurer. In some cases the name of the contractor was wrong and in others the City Treasurer omitted his name from the receipts. This opening record of City Treasurer FOERSTEL speaks so eloquently of incompetency that further comment is superfluous.

THE stars and stripes and the tri-color are blended in Paris to-day. The people of the new world Republic who have just celebrated the Centennial anniversary of the birth of free constitutional government in America send greetings to the people of the old world Republic who are celebrating the overthrow of tyranny and the birth of freedom in France. There are strong bonds of sympathy between France and the United States, firmly knit by mutual aid in adversity. The permanence and prosperity of the present French Republic lie close to the hearts of Americans—closer, perhaps, than they openly admit.

IN his letter of acceptance President HARRISON said: "In appointments to "every grade and department, fitness and "not party service should be the essential "and discriminating test, and fidelity and "efficiency the only sure tenure of office." But now General Superintendent BELL writes to railway mail clerks whom he has removed: "The action was taken in "consequence of no fault on your part. "The reasons for your retirement were of "a political nature." And is it merely to violate his written pledge by rewarding party service with office that President HARRISON is devoting the first year of his term to the labor of removing Democrats and appointing Republicans to office?

THE Chicago Tribune is very fierce in its opposition to trusts and trade combines as monopolies destructive of competition, unless they happen to conduce to the creation of monopolies for the benefit of Chicago, and then it can see in them nothing but whole-souled and public-spirited efforts to promote the public good. It fights the battles of the Chicago dressed beef combine as if that monopoly were one of the greatest blessings to consumer and producer which the genius of commerce ever devised, and it praises the combine of Chicago rolling-mills as a movement in behalf of competition, a necessary action to keep Pittsburg from acquiring a monopoly of the iron business. With self-interest holding the balance of argument men's opinions of any monopoly vary according as they are its beneficiaries or its victims.

CONGRESSMAN FRANK, fresh from Washington says, that President HARRISON is trying to give to the work of making new appointments a personal attention entailing an amount of labor that is beyond the endurance of man. This laborious and exclusive attention to appointments is a loyal and praiseworthy effort to serve his party by preventing the appointment of bad Republicans to positions in which they may disgrace the party; but it leaves the work of making removals to subordinates, who remove clerks for no fault and for "reasons of a political nature." If President HARRISON would watch the removals with more care, and see that they were made only as dictated by the interests of the public service, he would be acting more in accordance with his letter of acceptance, get rid of a great deal of the labor of attending to new appointments, and render both his party and his country a better service than either can ever get from the best possible administration of the spoils system.

HOT SHOT FROM PORTER.

THE ADMIRAL REPLIES TO GEN. BUTLER'S CHARGES OF COWARDICE.

Butler's Hostility Due to Porter's Knowledge of the Former's Incompetency—The Admiral's Share in the Capture of the Forts—Documents Completely Refuting the Charges Made by Butler.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 7.—When "Bold Ben" Butler made his recent attack on Admiral Porter, accusing him of cowardice at the battle of Forts Jackson and St. Philip, he probably assumed that it would not "kick back." Admiral Porter was at first disposed to treat Butler with silent contempt and to rely upon the record of history to protect him from an ancient enemy, who has always been more vicious toward Porter than he ever was dangerous to his opponents in the field. Butler has never quite liked Porter since the first attack on Fort Fisher, when, after Porter had silenced the guns of the Fort, thus putting Butler in the way of an easy capture of both fort and garrison, Butler ignominiously abandoned the enterprise and came away with nothing but the name of the "Hero of Fort Fisher." Butler cherished his hostility to Porter for knowing the facts about his incompetency at this time, and before the Committee on the Conduct of the War he afterward attempted to prove in just-ification of his failure that Fort Fisher was impregnable. While he was engaged in making this demonstration guns were heard at the capitol and inquiry was made to learn the significance of the salute. Greatly to Butler's chagrin came the answer: "They are celebrating the capture of Fort Fisher by Gen. Terry."

Admiral Porter's friends and family were able to restrain his desire to engage with Butler Sunday, but the appearance yesterday of the papers containing the admission from Butler that he did mean to accuse the Admiral of cowardice, and the interest manifested in the matter by everybody with whom the Admiral was coming in contact stirred him up so thoroughly that he can no longer restrain from talking back.

PORTER LOADED FOR BEAR.

When his attention was directed to Butler's latest utterances he said:

"When that bird of ill-omen takes offense at any one he bottles up his venom until in one of his maudlin intervals he pours it out. On my first acquaintance with Butler, at New Orleans, he sent me an impertinent message upon which I wrote to him that if he did not send me an ample apology I would take personal satisfaction. He had to make the apology after doing all he could to dodge the issue. Since then we have not been at all like Damon and Pythias.

"About once in every five years after one of his drunken bouts Butler makes a spasmodic rush at me like a mad bull, but I have always caught him on the horns and thrown him flat on his back. I wonder the public should notice what the old imbecile says, and except for the fun of 'laying him out' again, I would not notice him now. He is the only man I ever heard of who could outlive the contempt of the whole nation; could always run away in time of war and yet flourish. I came very near thrashing him when he was Military Governor of New Orleans, and am sorry I did not do it. The General is going to write a volume of reminiscences. If he will come to me I will give him a book full about himself which will enlighten the public who may have forgotten the time when he went by the name of 'Beast' Butler among the children in the streets."

While doubting whether it is possible, in Butler's present "imbecility," to refresh his memory, and doubting still whether it is worth while to take any serious notice of him, Admiral Porter offers in evidence some documents that speak for him and against Butler at the same time. The first of these documents is the letter from the Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles, congratulating the Admiral and his command for the useful part they took in the capture of the fort that defended the approach to New Orleans. This was printed and it is not necessary to reproduce it here. The Admiral says that Butler is "always putting his feet into it and always will be as long as his vicious habits continue. If he could only hide himself in obscurity he might pass his declining days in that maudlin state, in which he so much delights, and go to his grave unnoticed."

FARRAGUT'S LETTER.

The second letter produced by Admiral Porter in refutation of Butler's charge of cowardice is one written by Flag Officer Farragut after the passing of the forts. It is as follows:

DEAR PORTER—We had a rough time of it, as Boggs will tell you, but, thank God, the number of killed and wounded was very small, considering. This ship had two killed and eight wounded. We destroyed the Ram in a single combat between her and the old Mississippi, but the Ram backed out when she saw the Mississippi coming down at her so rampantly and he dodged her and ran on shore, whereupon Smith put two or three broadsides through him and knocked him all to pieces. The Ram pushed a fire raft onto me, and in trying to avoid it I ran the ship on shore. He again pushed the fire raft on me and got the ship on fire all along one side. I thought it was all up with us, but we put it out and got off again, proceeding up the river, fighting our way. We have destroyed all but two of the gunboats and these will have to surrender with the forts.

I intend to follow up my success and push to New Orleans and then come down and attend to the forts, so you hold them in a statu quo until I come back. I think if you send a flag of truce and demand their surrender, they will yield, for their intercourse with the city is cut off. We have cut the wires above the quarantine and are now going ahead. I took 300 or 400 prisoners at quarantine. They surrendered and I paroled them not to take up arms again. I could not stop to take care of them. If the general will come up the bayou and land a few men, or as many as he pleases, he will find two of our gun boats there to protect him from the gunboats that are at the forts. I wish to get to the English turn where they say they have not placed a battery yet, but have two above nearer New Orleans. They will not be idle, and neither will I. You supported us most nobly. Very truly yours,

D. C. FARRAGUT.

To Capt. D. D. Porter, Commander Mortar Flotilla.

A CONFEDERATE'S TESTIMONIAL.

In April, 1872, Col. Edward Higgins, who commanded the Confederate forces in Fort Jackson during the bombardment, wrote a letter to Admiral Porter describing to him the effect upon Forts Jackson and St. Philip of the prolonged mortar firing that preceded and accompanied the passing of the fleet. Col. Higgins described the practice as excellent from beginning to end. Nearly every shell fired lodged in the works. On the first night of the attack all the buildings in the rear of the fort were fired by bursting shells, as were the sandbag walls around the magazine doors. Fort Jackson was helpless. The magazines were inaccessible and no resistance could have been offered to the passing fleet. Next morning the citadel and the works were a scene of terrible destruction, which continued until the passage of the fleet, April 24, the men in the forts being confined principally to casements to prevent the loss of the best part of the garrison. A shell struck the parapet over one of the magazines, the wall of which was seven feet thick, penetrated five feet and failed to burst. "If that shell had exploded," said Col. Higgins, "your work would have ended." On the morning of the 24th, when the fleet passed, the terrible precision with which the formidable vessels sent lots of shells upon the fort rendered it impossible for the Confederates to obtain either rapidity or accuracy of fire and made the passage of the fleet comparatively easy.

When Flag Officer Farragut ran past the forts below the city of New Orleans he proceeded on up the river, leaving to Commander Porter, with his mortar flotilla, the task of reducing the forts. Commander Porter continued the bombardment until all his mortar shells were expended and then sent the mortar schooners to Pilot Town to fill up with ammunition from the magazine vessel stationed at that point. The mortar vessels were then sent down the river and around in the rear of the forts, where there were no guns mounted. When Gen. Duncan, who commanded Fort Jackson and St. Philip, saw the position of the mortar vessels he immediately wrote to Commander Porter offering to surrender, and April 28, 1862, the United States flag was hoisted over the works.

After the surrender of the forts Commander Porter sent his steamers down and towed Gen. ... New ... Farragut ... under the guns of the navy. He formerly claimed to be "captor of New Orleans," but at last he admits that Farragut captured the city.

THE CONSOLIDATION OF ELEVATORS.

It Will Be Effected by June 1 Under W. M. Samuel's Management.

The elevator consolidation may now be looked upon as assured. There is scarcely a doubt left about the course they will pursue, and unless something unexpected happens within a few days they will all be under one management with Mr. Webb M. Samuel as general manager. The two that have delayed the proceedings somewhat are the Advance and the Union Depot. But Mr. R. S. McCormick of Chicago, the new Secretary of the American Legation in London, is heavily interested in the Advance, and he has been in the city for a day or two in consultation with Mr. Samuel and some of the other elevator men. The result of his visit is, so it is said, that the Advance will swing into line when the time comes. The Union Depot is being held back by Mr. Lionberger on account of the valuation placed upon it, but the other elevators will probably force if they do not induce the Union Depot to come in. It is located on the Missouri Pacific tracks, above the depot, and can only deliver grain to railroads. An elevator,

"TO BE REGULAR"

and recognized by the Merchants' Exchange, must be able to deliver to both railroad and river, or else must have an agreement with a regular elevator to recognize all its river orders. The Union Depot has such an agreement with the Merchants' and on account of that agreement is declared regular, but if the Merchants' should refuse to load out grain on river orders on the Union Depot the latter would no longer be regular and grain stored in it could not be sold on call on 'Change. This possibility will, no doubt, have some weight with the managers of the Union Depot since the Merchants' has gone into the consolidation. But there will probably be a reduction in elevator rates. When the consolidation has been effected all the houses will be closed except two on this and two on the other side of the river, which will be kept open to handle the current business. The closing of all these houses and the saving that will result from the consolidation will give the combined elevators an advantage over any that remain outside. They probably will reduce the storage price. They certainly will

IF ANY ELEVATORS REMAIN OUTSIDE

to continue the old competitive throat-cutting business that has made the consolidation necessary. They can put the price down to ¾c—it is now 1½c—and that will cover interest and insurance. An outside house could not stand such a rate as that because its expenses are too great. The consolidated houses would lose money too, but the proportion of their expenses to their capital is so much smaller than the proportion of the expenses of an outside house, that the loss could be easily borne until even a stubborn competitor yielded. There is no prospect of such however, for the consideration has almost been effected. The bankers have been heartily in favor of it, the commission men have urged it, and everyone who knows anything of the business has approved it. The attorneys are now drawing up the papers, and they are expected to be signed and the new management organized so as to take hold by June 1.

A FIGHT,

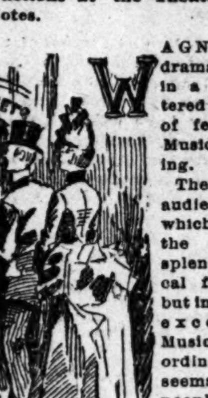
WAGNER'S MUSIC DRAMA

BRILLIANT PRODUCTION OF THE "RHEINGOLD" IN MUSIC HALL LAST EVENING.

Artists, Orchestra and Scenery Contribute to an Artistic Success—The Audience and Toilettes—"The Valkyr" To-Night—Attractions at the Theaters—Amusement Notes.



WAGNERIAN melodrama, to use the term in a high sense, entered upon a week of festival at Grand Music Hall last evening.

There was not the audience present which the character of the work and the splendor of the musical forces deserved, but in any other place except capacious Music Hall, where an ordinary theaterful seems a sprinkling of people, it would have been an excellent audience. That it had appreciative enthusiasm, when occasion called for it, was shown by the applause which greeted the finest passages. At the close of the second scene and at the final fall of the curtain on the tableau of the "Gods Entering Walhalla" the artists were called before the curtain.

That the first presentation of "The Rheingold" should receive appreciation speaks eloquent praise for the production as a whole—artists, scenery and orchestra. The opera is among the least attractive of Wagner's works, although it marks his entrance upon the greatest period of his life and embodies the theory of music drama, to the developing of which the better part of his life was devoted. But Wagner unquestionably needs study for genuine appreciation of his later works and to get behind what appears to an uninitiated listener and spectator to be the clap-trap of dramatic effect in the scenery and orchestration. One does not grasp at a hearing the full meaning and significance of his orchestral treatment of his theme, nor the essential harmony with which the spirit of the scene is interpreted even with apparent discord at times. The thorough interpretation of the subject in the orchestration which is carried out to the fullest extent in "The Rheingold" requires a comprehension of the work to enjoy all of its beauty and grandeur which can only come from familiarity with it.

"The Rheingold" as the prelude of the tetralogy was properly given last evening, but its unattractiveness to the general public from a musical standpoint made it perhaps the worst opera of the six in the repertoire which could have served as an introduction for the Metropolitan Opera Co. It has beauties and possesses grandeur and impressive theatric effects, but it is essentially a music-drama, with scarcely a touch of lighter sentiment and with few bars of tuneful melody. There is one element of it, however, which is fascinating to intelligent people, and particularly to any one of an imaginative and philosophic bent. Wagner is poet and philosopher, as well as composer, and his interpretation and application to human life and experience of the German legends and mythological traditions is full of serious charm and deep interest.

Of the production of the opera there can be only one verdict. It was elaborate, complete and thoroughly artistic. Singers, scenery and orchestra combined to interpret fully with the most admirable effect the work of the composer. His ideal of the music-drama was filled not so much by the individual strength of the artists as by the ensemble of forces and properties. Not a detail which could contribute to the general result was neglected. There was no chance for gorgeous pictures, but the scenery was adequate and gave realistic illustration of the bed of the Rhine with the Rhine-daughters gliding gracefully in the water, the effect being particularly striking in this instance, the music and the scene contributing to make an impressive spectacle of the Valley of the Rhine and Walhalla, and of Nibelheim, the home of the Nibelung. The orchestral work was brilliant throughout under the able direction of Herr Seidl.

The cast was evenly excellent, with several individually brilliant artists. Max Alvary's fine tenor and artistic methods vocal and dramatic lifted the role ... Loki to a brilliant height. Emil ... e a strong impersonation ... splendid basso filling ... at tones. ... Beck, as Alberich, was excellent, as was Louise Meisslinger as Fricka, Ida Klein as Freia and Sophie Traubmann as Woglinde. In fact the entire cast was satisfactory, presenting A. Grienauer as Thor, Albert Mittelhauser as Froh, William Sedlmayer as Mime, Eugene Weiss as Fofner, Ludwig Modenger as Forold, Felice Koschaska as Welgunder and Hedwig Reil as Flosshilde and Erda.

"THE VALKYR" TO-NIGHT.

The real beginning of the music drama proper will be inaugurated to-night with the production of "The Valkyr," the human element being introduced in the drama. From this time on the operas increase in brilliancy of composition and in fervor and interest. Lilli Lehmann-Kalisch, whose magnificent voice is known already to St. Louis music lovers, will appear as Brunnhilde, while her husband, Paul Kalisch, who ranks among the best German tenors, will have the role of Siegmund. Emil Fischer will appear as Wotan again, and a strong even cast is announced. The same scenic completeness and realism which marked last evening's production is promised for this evening. The performance will commence at 7:45 o'clock. One of the greatest performances of the week will be that of Siegfried to-morrow night, with Alvary in the title role and Lilli Lehmann-Kalisch as Brunnhilde.

The impossibility of a person being alive and dead at the same time is not so manifest to the people who have seen Herrmann's latest sensation at the Grand.

The clever prestidigitateur accomplishes the feat of apparently burning to death a young and handsome woman, of presenting her disembodied spirit to the audience and then presenting her again on the stage. Mme. Herrmann, who is one of the genuine attractions of the Professor's performances, is the victim. There is a little dramatic sketch which leads up to the sacrifice of a woman by fire. Mme. Herrmann is laid in a box and is covered with a sheet. Her body is apparently burned to ashes, when at an opening appears her spirit clinging to a cross. The illusion is realistic and wonderful.

Herrmann also gives an expose of spiritualism and a number of entertaining and wonderful slight-of-hand tricks, and the Oriental juggler and balancer, D'Alvini, adds greatly to the enjoyment of the audience by some remarkable feats and tricks.

The beautiful ballets and brilliant spectacular features of "The Crystal Slipper," with the host of specialties of an entertaining character, will doubtless make it a strong card for the Olympic, notwithstanding its recent engagement.

Mattie Hornby takes the part of Prince Prettiwitz in place of Katherine Howe and fills it better, but otherwise there is no change in the cast. Eddie Foy still cuts funny capers as Yosemite, James Maas is the Baron Anthracite, Marguerite Fish the cute Cinderella and the other clever people have their old places. In the novelty and attractive character of its ballets and spectacles, "The Slipper" has not been surpassed by any similar attraction. Graceful, spirited and handsome Qualitz still shows what the poetry of motion can be made in leading the ballets. Little Tich is lacking from the forces this week, but otherwise they are intact. There was a very large audience present last evening, as it was the occasion of the benefit of Mr. Taylor, the doorkeeper, and the public remembered him handsomely.

A new impersonator of the romantic hero of "Monte Cristo" lends interest to the production of that fascinating drama at Pope's, although Mr. Horace Lewis does not throw any new light on the character nor reach the standard fixed by his best predecessors. His effort, however, is capable, and his company, with a few exceptions, give him fair support. The audiences received the performance with approval and the attraction promises to enjoy a good week.

The first production in this city of Mrs. Francis Hodgson Burnett's dramatic version of her beautiful story, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," and which will mark the close of the season at the Olympic Theater, occurs next Monday evening. There has been no play produced in years which appeals more directly to the heart of a parent or in which there is more human pathos than Little Lord Fauntleroy. The company comprises Messrs. Frank E. Aiken, Russell Bassett, Matt B. Snyder, Jas. G. Peakes, Herman Blakemore, Lawrence Eddinger, George Marston, E. R. Rogers, Misses Helen Lowell, Lytton, Snyder, Little Ray Maskell and Master Wallie Eddinger, all under the management of Mr. T. H. French.

In the abundance of music this week it should not be forgotten that the Boston Symphony orchestra will give two concerts May 11 and 13 at Music Hall, and that this superb organization is unequaled in this country. Seats are now on sale at Balmer & Weber's.

FASHION AT THE OPERA.

MECHANICS' EXCHANGE.

Probability That the Membership Will Be Doubled by January 1.

In response to the circular sent out by the Mechanics' Exchange, notifying contractors that there was now before the Exchange—with a strong probability of passage—an amendment increasing the initiation from $5 to $100, a number of letters have been received from contractors anxious to join before the new rule goes into effect, which will be on January 1, 1890. Secretary Walsh said this morning that it was confidently expected by the officers of the Exchange that fully 200 members would be added before the raise in the initiation took place. The present membership of the Exchange is 175, so that if the anticipations of the officers are realized the membership will be more than doubled. This big increase will naturally give the Exchange more importance, and bring in a much larger revenue in dues. There is several thousand dollars in the treasury now, and it is confidently expected that in a few years sufficient money will have been raised to put up a creditable Exchange building. President Wm. Rutter is a young and progressive man, and is taking a great interest in increasing the prestige of the Exchange.

THE ELECTRIC SUGAR FRAUD.

Mrs. Friend and Her Confederates Appear in Court.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, May 7.—The great electric sugar combination appeared before Recorder Smyth yesterday—Wm. E. Howard, Mrs. Friend and Gus and George Halstead—to answer to charges of fraud. The alleged dupes of the combination, President Cottrill and Secretary Robertson, with Lawson N. Fuller, were also present. Assistant District Attorney Davis presented a new indictment against Howard, designed to avoid any evasion or technicality. The first indictment charged that Howard defrauded Lawson N. Fuller out of $6,500. Fuller did not pay the money to Howard, but to the officers of the company. The new indictment also charges Howard with defrauding the Electric Sugar Co. and Messrs. Cottrill and Robertson. Counselor Howe was allowed time to examine the new indictment. He then entered a demurrer on the ground that the new indictment charged crimes different from that upon which the extradition had been obtained. Recorder Smyth decided against the prisoner, and Lawyer Howe gave notice of a special plea which he would argue to-day. Howard went to the Tombs in default of bonds under the new indictment.

Reduced the Price of Iron.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 7.—The Thomas Iron Co., one of the oldest makers of pig iron in this State, yesterday announced a reduction of $1 in the price of No. 1 and No. 2 pig iron. The prices heretofore have been $18 for No. 1, $17 for No. 2 and $15 for No. 3. The new prices are $17 for No. 1, $16 for No. 2 and $15 for No. 3. These are the lowest official prices made for pig iron on the Atlantic Coast since 1879. The reduction has been brought about by a variety of causes, the chief of which is the competition of Southern and Western iron manufacturers in Eastern cities.

LOOKS BAD FOR FOERSTEL

A REPORT WHICH CALLS FOR EXPLANATION FROM THE CITY TREASURER.

The Board of Public Improvements Informed That Numerous Errors in Contract Letting Were Made—Mr. Foerstel's Office—Samples of the Mistakes—A Number of Contracts Let by the Board To-Day.

The Board of Public Improvements held a regular meeting this morning and transacted a great deal of important business.

The awards on the bids for grading, paving, opening and otherwise improving certain streets in various parts of the city, were as follows:

Letting 2560, Michael Hanick, $1,082.90; letting 2561, T. W. Scott, $885.00; letting 2562, Thos. Whelan, $260.00; letting 2563, Thos. Whelan, $260.00; letting 2564, Thos. Whelan, $260.00; letting 2565, Thos. Whelan, $260.00; letting 2566, Judge & Connors, $207.10; letting 2567, Thos. Whelan, $240.00; letting 2568, T. W. Scott, $885.00; letting 2570, Michael Hanick, $104; letting 2571, John Beiswaenger, $270.25; letting 2572, Thomas Whelan, $569.25; letting 2573, John Beiswaenger, $466.48; letting 2574, T. W. Scott, $464.81; letting 2575, Thomas Whelan, $260; letting 2576, Thomas Whelan, $668.75; letting 2577, Michael Hanick, $235; letting 2578, M. A. Hogan, $600; letting 2579, S. S. Wade, $400; letting 2580, Joseph Weber, $650; letting 2581, Thomas Whelan, $432.

In connection with the awards and the bids received yesterday, the Committee on Street Department submitted a report showing a large number of errors made on the bids, most of these errors being made in the Treasurer's office as the report will show.

In explanation of the Street Committee's report it is necessary to state that all bidders on public work must deposit with the Treasurer an amount of money fixed by the Board of Public Improvements to conform with the extent of the work. In return for his deposit the Treasurer gives the contractor duplicate receipts one of which is filed with the Board of Public Improvements with the bid for the work. It was in making out these receipts that the mistakes were made. Fortunately none of the bids on which the mistakes were made were the lowest incurred, so that no harm was done. The report of the committee as filed with the board this morning was as follows:

ERRORS IN THE TREASURER'S OFFICE.

ST. LOUIS, May 7, 1889.

To the Honorable Board of Public Improvements:

GENTLEMEN—Your Committee on Street Department, to whom were referred the bids received May 6, 1889, for the public work advertised as lettings Nos. 2,560 to 2,581, both inclusive, beg leave to report the following informalities in said bids and recommend that they be rejected:

Letting No. 2,560, bid of Timothy Maloney; City Treasurer did not sign his receipt.

Letting No. 2,561, bid of Thos. Whelan; City Treasurer omitted bidder's name in his receipt.

Bid of Daniel Cahill, City Treasurer omitted bidder's full name in his receipt, i. e., only filled in the name of Daniel C.

Bid of A. Bodkin & Son—Said firm did not state the names of their securities.

Letting No. 2562—Bid of Daniel Cahill, City Treasurer inserted in his receipt the name of Daniel Carroll instead of Daniel Cahill.

Letting No. 2563—Bid of Daniel Cahill, City Treasurer inserted in his receipt the name of Daniel Carroll instead of Daniel Cahill.

Bid of A. Bodkin & Son—Said firm did not state the names of their securities.

Letting No. 2,564—Bid of Daniel Cahill, City Treasurer inserted in his receipt the name of Daniel Carroll instead of Daniel Cahill.

Letting No. 2,565—Bid of Daniel Cahill, City Treasurer inserted in his receipt the name of Daniel Carroll instead of Daniel Cahill.

Letting No. 2,566, bid of A. Bodkin & Son—Said firm did not state the names of their securities.

Letting No. 2,571—Bid of Daniel Cahill, City Treasurer inserted in his receipt the name of Daniel Carroll, instead of Daniel Cahill.

Letting No. 2,572—Bid of John Beiswaenger, ambiguity in prices.

Bid of Daniel Dunnigan, City Treasurer failed to sign his receipt.

Bid of Daniel Cahill, City Treasurer inserted in his receipt the name of Daniel Carroll, instead of Daniel Cahill.

Letting No. 2,576—Bid of Daniel Cahill, City Treasurer inserted in his receipt the name of Daniel Carroll, instead of Daniel Cahill.

Letting No. 2,578—Bid of Daniel Cahill, City Treasurer inserted in his receipt the name of Daniel Carroll, instead of Daniel Cahill.

Letting No. 2,580—Bid of Daniel Cahill, City Treasurer inserted in his receipt the name of Daniel Carroll, instead of Daniel Cahill.

GEO. BUNNER,
ROBERT E. McMATH
HENRY FLAD.

Water Commissioner Holman made an informal report to the board on the subject of the three ordinances now before the Municipal Assembly for passage, which, if passed, will give to three different railroads the right to run over the city property known as the water-works reservation. The three roads are the Merchants' Terminal, the Transfer and the Cleveland, Kansas City & St. Louis. The bills of all three are in substance the same, as they want a right of way from Hall street, through the water-works territory to the northern city limits. In these ordinances there are sections specifying that the location of the tracks in the Water works territory can be directed by the board.

This stipulation is the one Mr. Holman objected to, saying that if the ordinances or any one of them should pass the board's jurisdiction would only extend to the location of the tracks within the limits of the reservation but could not be kept out altogether without another ordinance; a special committee was appointed to make a report on the whole subject of allowing railroads to enter the city from the north and the relations of such a movement to the public welfare.

A number of ordinances for street work were recommended to the Municipal Assembly.

A Criminally Careless Driver.

Some unknown man driving on Bellefontaine road yesterday afternoon ran into and turned a carriage occupied by Robert E. Lee and wife, who were returning from a funeral. Mr. Lee sustained a severe dislocation of the right shoulder, while Mrs. Lee escaped uninjured. After having his injuries attended Mr. Lee was removed to his home, 2031 Penrose street.

Two Bootblacks, "Hams" and "Scotty," Make a Raid on a Drunken Man.

Two bootblacks, aged 13 and 12 years respectively, who wield the brush under the names of "Hams" and "Scotty," are now locked up at the Four Courts, and warrants will be sworn out to-day charging them with grand larceny. John Rohan, a boarder at the Clifton House, 110 North Broadway, imbibed rather freely last night, and about 3 a. m. to-day he found himself in a decidedly unsteady condition at the corner of Sixth and Market streets. Here the two gamins approached him and he gave them 10 cents each, in return for which they were to assist him to reach his room. In paying them their money Rohan inadvertenly displayed a roll of bills amounting to nearly $1,500, and it is presumed that the gamins saw the roll, for at Seventh and Chestnut they seized the money and scampered out the street. Rohan realized that he had been robbed and notified the police. As he had known the bootblacks by sight for about two years he was able to give some sort of a description of them, and an hour afterwards Officer Kavanaugh arrested Herman Overmark, alias "Hams," and locked him up at the Chestnut street Station. Upon being searched $615 of the missing money was found on his person, and he was forced to admit his guilt. He stated that his companion was Geo. McLaughlin, alias "Scotty," and the latter was run in this morning by Officer Dunn. He, too, had $615 in his pockets, and the money was easily identified by Rohan, the bills being of the same denomination as those stolen. He also identified the boys. Both of the juvenile prisoners are children of the street, without homes or settled places of abode, depending entirely upon their own energies for support.

ANOTHER JESSE POMEROY.

A 12-Year-Old Polish Lad Who Delights in Fiendish Deeds.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

MANCHESTER, N. H., May 7.—John Jeski, a Polish Hebrew, 12 years old, is the Jesse Pomeroy of New Hampshire. He has just been sentenced to four years in the State Industrial School for bloodthirsty cruelty, fully equal to that of the boy fiend of Boston. The offense for which he was sentenced is the attempted murder of a lad a few years younger than himself. The young fiend enticed the small boy to the brink of a brook and then pushed him into the water. Then he strove to force the head of his intended victim under water and drown him. He would undoubtedly have succeeded in his purpose, as the little fellow had already become insensible, but for the opportune arrival of a man who rescued the lad. On another occasion young Jeski was found guilty of stabbing boys with a pocket-knife, inflicting severe and painful wounds, and has more than once been guilty of offering nameless indignities to little girls whom he followed into secluded places. He was also once arrested for breaking and entering a house, but escaped through a technicality. The boy seems to take delight in the most fiendish acts of cruelty.

Ex-Banker Fish to Be Released From Prison Next Saturday.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

AUBURN, N. Y., May 7.—James D. Fish, ex-President of the defunct Marine Bank, who was convicted nearly four years ago of maladministration of the bank's finances and sentenced for ten years in the State's Prison, will be a free man next Saturday morning. The commutation of the sentence of the ex-banker was one of the last executive acts of ex-President Cleveland before he left the White House. Fish's sojourn in prison here has certainly lengthened his years. When he came here he was broken down physically and feeling keenly the disgrace of his position. Instead of soon breaking down completely, however, he has been constantly improving in health. His mind, too, has become active and his spirits are buoyant. Fish has never ceased to assert his innocence of all actual criminality. He maintains constantly that he was the dupe of Ferdinand Ward and that there are a dozen or more men prominent in financial and social life in the metropolis to-day who were mixed up in the great Grant & Ward fiasco every whit as guilty as himself if he was guilty. He constantly asserts that public clamor demanded a victim and he was selected and condemned.

A SURE THING.

The Marble Washington Centennial Arch in New York City.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, May 7.—The erection of the proposed marble arch to commemorate the centennial of Washington's inauguration over Fifth avenue at Washington square is now practically assured. The Art Committee met last night at the Metropolitan Opera-house and appointed a committee to raise money and erect the arch. Before proceeding to business Mr. White was formally thanked for his design as were the sixty-three citizens who carried it out. The question of material was determined in favor of marble, which was in accordance with Mr. Stafford White's design. Mr. White's estimate of the cost of the reproduction was $80,000, but the figures were placed at $100,000 to cover any contingency. A committee of thirty-four will have charge of the project. At the close of the meeting three of those present put themselves down for subscriptions of $1,000 each. They would not allow their names to be given out. Mr. Glider said that $1 subscriptions had already begun to come in and that the fund now reached the sum of $5,000. The Society of American Artists has begun a subscription to the fund.

ROW AT A BALL GAME.

An Umpire Beaten and Stabbed by the Defeated Players.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, May 7.—The Excelsiors of Winfield, L. I., and the Athletics of Long Island City played a game of base ball Sunday at Winfield. The Excelsiors were defeated, but took exception to the rulings of the umpire, Robert Doyle of Long Island City, who was set upon by members of the defeated club, one of whom knocked him down with a bat, while another stabbed him with a pocket-knife in several places about the face and neck. Doyle was taken to his home. He is seriously injured. The identity of his assailants has not yet been established, but it is expected arrests will be made during to-day.

A MYSTERIOUS MURDERER.

He Murders a Deaf-Mute and Makes a Constable Resign.

DIXON, Mo., May 7.—Some unknown outlaw is terrorizing people here. He has murdered Thomas McMichael, a deaf-mute, and threatened a constable into resigning. Thomas McMichael came here in the latter part of November and lived with Mr. and Mrs. Hard, also deaf-mutes. Then he went to Jacob Rector's house to stay awhile and Rector accused him of stealing two $20 bills. Rector, Jenning and Martin took him out and searched him. They found $191, but no $20 bills. They let him go, but rearrested him, and, he claimed, ran him across the line into Phelps County. There they took $50 in gold from him and turned him loose, telling him to leave the country or they would kill him. He did not go, but reported the case, and indictments were found by the Grand-jury. Jennings left the county. April 27 a stranger arrived here and claimed to have a warrant for McMichael's arrest for stealing money from a widow at Osage Bluff. He drew a revolver and made McMichael go with him. On May 1 McMichael's dead body was found about three-quarters of a mile from his house. The top of his head had been blown off. The woods were searched but no trace of the murderer could be found. Rewards amounting to $750 have been offered for his arrest. Yesterday Constable F. A. Murphy received an anonymous letter warning him that unless he resigned his office his mill would be burned and W. H. Ray, his deputy, killed. Murphy complied with the request and resigned. It is thought that this letter was written by the murderer. Both Murphy and Ray were hunting for his tracks. The community is excited and in terror for fear the murderer who so carefully screens himself may kill anyone who may chance to approach him unknowingly.

Chopping Down Telegraph Poles.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, May 7.—Lower Broadway and Park Row are to be cleared of electric wires and poles, and unless the Western Union Telegraph Co. makes haste some of its most important circuits will be severed. The Board of Electrical Control has given the company thirty days to prepare for the pole-chopping. The pole choppers on Eighth avenue between Fifty-third and Fifty-eighth streets, and on the latter street between Sixth avenue and Broadway did good work yesterday, but were unable to complete the job.

The Terminal Railway Fight.

A mass-meeting at Sturgeon Market, Broadway and North Market street, was held last night for the purpose of denouncing the methods of the St. Louis Transfer Railway in its fight on the Terminal Railway Co. J. K. Cummings presided. J. C. Orrick spoke, as did Louis Fuss, Isaac Sturgeon and others and a committee on resolutions was appointed, Michael Heller, Fred Schwartz, Louis Rosenbaum, George Knapp and W. M. Glasfelder. The committee prepared resolutions, asking the ... municipal Assem...

Indications.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 7.—Indications for twenty-four hours:

For Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska—Rain; severe local storms; southerly shifting to colder westerly winds.

For Illinois—Rain; local storms; southeasterly winds; warmer to-day, followed by lower temperature on Wednesday.

For Iowa—Rain; colder; northwestly winds, preceded by higher temperature to-day.

The rivers will remain nearly stationary, except a fall at Cincinnati and a slow rise at Cairo. Cautionary signals are displayed at lake stations and Corpus Christi and Galveston.

SPECIAL PREDICTIONS.—A storm of decided energy is central over Dakota. The conditions are favorable for severe local storms in the States bordering on the Mississippi River and in the lake regions and the Ohio Valley. The rain area will probably extend over the lake regions to-night and reach the North Atlantic coast by Wednesday night.

Attempt to Wreck a Train.

BEEVILLE, Tex., May 7.—Obstructions were placed on the track of the San Antonio & Aransas Pass Railroad for the purpose of wrecking the train, but the engineer saw them in time to stop.

MONEY.

NEW YORK, May 7, 11 a. m.—The London prices this morning were quite irregular as compared with the closing figures of last evening here and first prices in our market were equally irregular, though differences did not exceed 3 per cent either way. The market was more than usually circumscribed this morning, although there was an active business for the first half hour. Atchison and New England, however, engrossed most of the attention with the Northern Pacific group and Louisville & Nashville following, the rest being quite dull. The movements in the list were slight and insignificant outside of a few stocks, and advances of 1½ on Manitoba, 1 in New England and ¾ in Atchison were the only important changes in quotations. The tone was not so strong late in the hour, and with the exception of Manitoba everything retired somewhat from the best figures. At 11 o'clock the market was fairly active and steady to firm at close to the best prices reached.

Noon—Money is easy at 2@3 per cent. Bar silver, 92¾. The stock market exhibited even less feature after 11 o'clock than during the first hour, and although St. Paul and Missouri Pacific were both more active, neither showed any material change in price. A firm tone existed and the best prices were well maintained until late in the hour, when the leading stocks yielded fractionally and at noon the market was barely steady and dull at slight fractions above the opening prices.

BOSTON, Mass., May 7.—Mexican 4s, 71@71½; common, 13@13¼; Allouez, 1@1⅛; Calumet, 198@200; Huron, [illegible].

LONDON, May 7, 12:30 p. m.—Consols opened at 98 1-16 for money, and 98⅛ for the account.

St. Louis Markets

REGULAR SESSION, CLOSING 1:15 P. M.

Rains in the Northwest, rains in the Southwest, and still raining at many points was the weather report this morning. Let her rain.

The available supply of wheat on land and sea is now 41,639,000 bu, against 43,671,000 last week, 52,517,000 last year and 65,795,000 two years ago; of corn is now 15,799,000 bu, against 17,014,000 last week, 13,619,000 last year and 18,322,000 two years ago.

Receipts of wheat at Liverpool for the past three days were 310,000 bu, none of which was American, but of the 190,000 bu corn received, all was American.

It will be a little strange, if, after the unfavorable weather this country has seen lately, Europe doesn't begin complaining. This usually follows. Just now the weather in England is "brilliant."

Last week's exports from seven Atlantic ports were 85,564 bbls flour, 158,893 bu wheat, 858,314 bu corn, 4,191 bbls pork, 6,337,267 lbs bacon and hams, 3,973,147 lbs lard.

A letter from Imogene, the center of the great corn belt of Iowa, to Grier, says: "... will begin to move from the country last ... week and next week. Look for a good mov... next week. Farmers are feeling good over su... respects. ..."

that California, Oregon and Washington Territory will have 60,000,000 bu wheat for export.

Since April 1 the available supply (visible and on ocean) of wheat has decreased 5,776,000 bu, where for same time last year it decreased 611,000 and in 1887, 4,967,000.

Deliveries of 45,000 bu corn were made to S. W. Cobb & Co. on May contracts this forenoon.

Henry C. Yaeger, who was on the floor, is firmly of the opinion that the winter wheat crop will be one of the finest, if not the best, this country has ever raised. He says the dry April helped wheat in this way, that it prevented the crop from running to straw, which it would have done if the usual April rains had fallen. Mr. Yaeger stated that the spring of 1879 was precisely the same as this, except that the crop of that year was not as forward as the present crop. The 1879 crop was the largest ever raised up to that time.

Now, Frank and John, why did you get out of your shorts and jump the bear side? Don't you know you excited hard feelings?

On passage to United Kingdom:

Wheat had a set-back this morning, reports of rains in many sections where most badly needed and the threatening weather here and elsewhere shutting off a great deal of the drouth racket. But, as the grain pits of Chicago and St. Louis were still dry, there was no wild plunging on the selling side. In other words, local operators were inclined to be skeptical in the absence of actual rains in their own sections. There was a decrease of 1,256,000 bu in amount on ocean passage, where last year it increased 1,136,000 bu, that blunted the selling edge somewhat though the market cables were all dull, and the decrease in local stock was near 65,000 bu, with very light receipts. July declined from 74¼c to 74⅛@¼c, but from that rallied to 74½c and held right firm, closing with 74⅜@½c bid and ⅛@⅜c below yesterday. It was active covering by shorts that held the market, Frank Ryan and John Thyson's purchases being especially heavy. The local milling demand continued good, over 50,000 No. 2 and No. 3 red selling, besides a fair amount of samples. No. 2 red sold in car lots at 7¼c in C. and at May prices and a fraction above for round lots; No. 3 red offered regular at 74½c, with bids of 73c for E., 73½c for St. L., A. and V., 74c for U.; No. 4 offered at 70c and 68c bid for U., A. and St. L.; rejected had 48c bid for E. side.

Corn was again better with all the other markets higher. Receipts small; over 100,000 bu decrease in stock and amount on ocean 806,000 bu smaller, last year it increasing 609,000 bu. There was a fairly active demand for September, which was the favorite trading option, and it sold at 33⅞@34c to 34¼c, closing with sellers at 34⅛@⅜c above yesterday. The spot grade market was firm, but sales were small owing to the scant offerings. No. 2 sold in St. L. at 31¼c; No. 3 had 30c bid East Side, 30½c in C.; No. 4 neglected; No. 2 white sold at 32@32¼c this side; No. 3 do at 31½c in St. L.

Oats—The May option advanced to 24c, but June declined ⅛c, with sales at 23¾c to 23⅝c, as there was not the urgent demand for it of yesterday and more for sale. There was an order demand for spot grades and firm prices were paid, but offerings were still small. No. 2 sold regular at 23¾c and 24c bid for C., 24½c for St. L.; No. 3 at 22¾c in St. L. and bid for C., but offered regular at 22½c; No grade at 21c in M.

Rye—There were no offerings and the only bids 41c for No. 2 and 38c for No. 3.

Flour was firm and indeed there was quite a strong undertone, with a striving after higher prices by most sellers, but there was not to be worked. There was an improved inquiry, including some orders from the East and for export, but the latter was for favorite or special brands and in a rather small way. Quotations: XXX., $2.70@2.80; family, $3.00@3.10; choice, $3.25@3.40; fancy, $3.70@3.80; extra fancy, $3.85@3.95; patents, $4.35@4.50. These prices for lots at depots and on levee this side.

Bran in demand and firm. Sales at East side points 42c for bulk and 49@50c for sacked; latter f. o. b. track and boat 50c.

Hay—Supply of low and medium grades excessive and prices still favoring buyers, but best timothy and prairie selling moderately well. Sales ranged: On west tracks—Prairie, prime to fancy Iowa, $7@8; prime to fancy Kansas do, $7.50@8.50; mixed timothy, common, $7@8; prime to choice, $8.50@9.50; timothy, prime to strictly prime, $9@10; choice to strictly choice, $11@12; fancy, $12.50@13.

Provisions were stronger and better for meats, both salted and smoked, and firm for other parts of the product, but trading was still confined to a job and order business. Green hams from the block 8½c for run of the house, and 14-lb will bring 8⅝c. Loose 40-day dry salt f. o. b. on orders: Shoulders, 5.15c; longs, 6.10c; c'ribs, 6.10c; shorts, 6.30c; boxed shoulders, 5¼c; longs, 6.15@6.20c; c'ribs, 6.20@6.25; shorts, 6.30@6.35c. Packed bacon—Shoulders, 6c; longs, 6¾@6.80c; c'rib, 6.80c; shorts, 6.90@6.95c. Standard mess pork f.o.b. on orders at $12.25; hard-side, $12; prime steam lard salable at 6½c; fancy leaf, 7¾c; second brand 7¼c; country, worth 6@6¼c. Sugar-cured hams, 9¾@12c; breakfast bacon, 9@10c. Beef—Family, $6.50@10 per bbl, on orders higher, $4@5.50 per half-bbl; dried, 8½@9½c; selected, 11c per lb; smoked tongues, $4@5 per dozen. Salt—Domestic, $1 per bbl on E., $1.05 on this side. Ground alum, $1.15@1.20 per 1 lb sack; small way higher.

Highwines unchanged at $1.02 in St. Louis, Cincinnati and Chicago, $1.03 in Peoria.

Lead moved up still higher in price. The demand was excellent, and New York was reputed with sales at $3.87½, and later none to be had at under $3.90. Locally, 100 tons refined at $3.62½, and 300 tons chemical hard East side at $3.65.

CATTLE—Eastern shippers again came to the front this forenoon and quickly took all the good native shipping steers offered. Sellers were very firm in their views and asked an advance of 10c ⅌ 100 lb which they obtained without any difficulty. It can be said the demand for good corn-fed native steers of 1,300 to 1,450 lbs was quite large and far exceeded the supply, consequently shippers had to curtail their operations. Interior shippers, the Dressed Beef Co., and local operators made fair purchases so that medium to good butcher steers may be called active and strong. Mixed butcher stuff also sold well. Stockers and feeding steers dull; milk cows with calves slow.

Choice [illegible], $3.85@4.20; good native steers, $3.60@3.8[illegible]; fair to medium steers, $3.25@3.50; com[illegible] steers, $2.50@2.85; stockers and feeders, $2.25@3; corn-fed Texas steers, $2.75@3.50; grass Texas steers, $2.25@2.80; cows and heifers, $1.75@2.75; bulls, $1.75@2.50; veal calves, $4@6 per head.

HOGS—The market opened up active and early and prices may be called steady at yesterday's range. Receipts were lower than yesterday and extra quality pretty fair. Speculators, packers and traders soon absorbed the offerings at extremes, $4.45@4.62½, with the bulk of sales going at $4.55 per 100 lbs. The demand exceeded the supply. Common hogs, sows, thin pigs, etc., dull at $3.50@4.25 per 100 lbs. Yorkers, $4.55@4.60; packing, $4.45@4.50; butchers, $4.55@4.62½.

John L. Sullivan Winds Up His Tour at Tarrytown.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, May 7.—John L. Sullivan wound up his series of exhibitions last night with a wonderfully profitable and decorous show in Tarrytown. Both he and his manager, Jack Barnitt, preferred Yonkers, but a license was refused. There was also trouble about getting a license in Tarrytown, but it was granted finally. Then the newspapers began complaining and asserting that the exhibition would surely attract a large representation from the tough districts of this city, and that the force of police was not great enough to handle it. The citizens of the town grew very much frightened by these forecasts and censured the town trustees for permitting the show. Music Hall was engaged. Business shut down in the town shortly after sunset, and the villagers placed themselves in a state of siege. Few stores were open and these few were guarded by the proprietors, who stood in the doorway. A crowd of men and boys gathered at the depot and patiently awaited the arrival of the great fighter. Sullivan, accompanied by Jack Ashton, Matt Clune, the proprietor of the Vanderbilt Hotel, and Editor Lane of the Independent, a little paper published in East Chester, left this city on the 7:10 train. Sullivan wore a glossy silk hat, a cutaway suit and a big diamond. He sat in the smoker with his friends, and attracted little attention. At every station along the line fresh additions to those going to the show were added until the train was pretty well filled. Sullivan had a job to fight his way through the crowd at the depot. Strong men seized his brawny hands and shook them with emotion as if he had just saved the country. A crowd of eager sporting men followed his carriage to the hall. The hall is a pretty little place, painted white and trimmed in gold and buff. The admission fee was 50 cents and $1 and a string of men that reached far down the street was waiting to purchase tickets. The entire police force of Tarrytown was out, under command of Chief of Police Chas. E. Nossiter. Among the spectators was Thos. Rawcliffe, President of the village. John W. McCagney of circus fame was master of ceremonies. His first announcement was that a great injustice had been done Mr. Sullivan by the rural newspapers, in stating that he would bring a gang of loafers with him who would endanger the peace of the town.

"Mr. Sullivan is a perfect gentleman," said Mr. McCagney, "and every man with him is a perfect gentleman, too. You will see the best show to-night you ever saw in your lives, and you won't see any trouble."

Then followed the sparrers, who entertained the spectators for an hour. Mr. McCagney introduced Mr. Sullivan as the champion of the world. The crowd applauded and when John appeared there were cries of "speech." The big fellow was bare to the waist. He wore flesh colored trunks, white silk stockings and laced shoes. His white boxing gloves were bordered with red and blue. He moved to the footlights with his shoulders bent and his hands swinging in front of him. An usher climbed upon the stage with a mass of roses in the shape of a boxing-glove. It was a gift from Matt Clune. Sullivan smiled and said:

"Well, gentlemen, all I can say is that I thank you very heartily for the kind welcome and hearty applause you have given me. It is not necessary for me to say that you are my friends. I know that, because if you were not you would not be here to-night. I thank you all and I remain your warm and personal friend, John L. Sullivan."

The crowd cheered uproariously. Then the big fellow sparred three rounds with Ashton. The rounds were a copy of those that always take place between these two. The big fellow was in prime condition, but pretty fat.

"Some people think that prize-fighters are all toughs," he said to the reporter. "You never hear of one murdering anybody, do you? Why, the folks up here and in Yonkers seemed to think that we wanted to carry off the town."

Sullivan said that he intended going into training at once. "I shall not go South to my permanent training quarters for two weeks," he said. "I shall begin training immediately, however, at a road-house a short distance outside of Brooklyn. I will have plenty of time to get into good condition before July 8, the date of the fight."

Sullivan came back to town on the 11:07 train. His journey to the depot was a triumphal march and his wait for the train was a public reception.

AN EVANGELIST'S ANSWER.

Orin J. Gary Replies to His Wife's Charges—Circuit Court Notes.

Orin J. Gary, the Evangelist, filed a reply in Judge Withrow's court to the charges made by his wife in her answer to his petition for divorce. Mr. Gary asked to be divorced from his wife, Emma F. Garry, on the ground that his wife deserted him, and though he often asked her to return she would not do so. Mrs. Gary filed an answer in which she states she has been a resident of Chicago for more than six years, and on September 13, 1882, married the plaintiff. A child was born in September, 1883, but died in April, 1884, and no other children have been born of the marriage. She says it is not her fault that she is living apart from her husband. After a bridal trip of one ... they went to her mother's house in ... cago and lived there nine months, when ... for St. Louis and since ... to support ...

bureau, which she said would buy a cloak for the baby, and placed the child in his arms. Instead of holding the baby he threw it on the bed, she claims, and picking up the five-dollar bill, put it in his pocket and walked out. Since then she states he has given her no money whatever and she was compelled to live with her mother. The most serious allegation she makes is that previous to the birth of the child her husband made her take medicine, but the effect was not produced. And further with all this he affected a tone of superior sanctity exhorting her to holy living. Referring to his proposals to help her she says he was always writing letters promising passes and money to join him, but every alternate letter was a suggestion to stay where she was.

Mr. Gary in his reply filed to-day denies every allegation his wife makes, and states he left Chicago on the advice of his wife's brother and his wife, and came to a strange city. He also denies that he ever gave his wife medicine and believes she never did take any such medicine as she states. He also states his wife lived apart from him because he determined to live a Christian life, which was distasteful to her, and she threatened to expose him to public contumely and disgrace and would make his life "a hell on earth." He is convinced from her actions and for reasons too strong to be resisted that she has determined to live separate and apart from him, and hence his action in his behalf commenced.

A Fair Market — Stocks Sold and Prices Obtained To-Day.

The quotations of mining stocks were higher this morning than during the last week and a buoyant feeling made itself manifest.

'Frisco was expected to rise sharply, but no news was received from the mine this morning, and the stock remained unchanged, 46¼ was bid at the opening of trading, and this price was unaltered throughout the morning session, 800 shares were disposed of, and the market closed at 41¼ bid. A telegram will probably be received this evening from Superintendent Smith, giving particulars of the developments in the 400 foot level, and possibly of assays in the 550-foot. Two and one-half a share was bid on the street for a call at 55, good for ten days, but the offer was refused.

THE WHITE LEAD TRUST.

Mr. Rogers and Col. Thompson Have Finished Their Business.

Mr. H. H. Rogers and Col. W. P. Thompson will leave to-night for New York. In just what position they leave the two white lead factories that are not in the trust they do not care to say. Mr. Rogers was seen this morning and asked if he could give out anything concerning the results of their negotiations.

"No," said Mr. Rogers, "there is nothing to say. We have seen the Southern and Collier and talked over the condition of business in a casual way but practically nothing has been done."

"Have you seen them again to-day?"

"Oh, Col. Thompson and I have just been attending to some personal matters. I don't know why they heralded our coming to St. Louis, anyhow. We both have interests here and visit St. Louis occasionally. No, we haven't done anything of especial interest, and we are going home to-night."

Called Him a Thief.

A suit for slander was filed in the Circuit Clerk's office this morning by Stephen Finke against Mary and Henry Schmitken. He charges the defendants with calling him a thief in German, in the presence and hearing of others, and damaged his name and character to the extent of $5,000. And for a second cause of action Mr. Finke says defendants called him both a liar and a thief in English and German, and again damaged his character to the extent of $5,000 more.

LOCKED UP FOR MURDER.

A Railroad Detective Arrested for Killing a Thief.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 7.—Railway Detective La Point of the New York Central Railroad is in the police station here on a charge of murder. He has put an end to the operations of a professional car thief by shooting him. The Central people have missed quantities of goods near this city for a long time past and have had La Point, who is located at this station, looking for them, in addition to a special force of men. Last night the detective learned that a man had been seen in the southern part of the city with a quantity of car journal brasses in his possession which it was supposed were stolen. He made an investigation and finally located the man. The latter left a saloon where he had been, and throwing a bag over his shoulder, started up the street at a rapid pace. The detective ordered him to halt, but he refused and throwing away the bag started to run. The detective again shouted "Halt" and drew his revolver. The fugitive, instead of stopping, increased his speed. La Point then fired, the shot taking effect in the man's back. He fell to the ground and died in a few minutes. His name is G. B. Cogne, and he has a hard reputation as a criminal. A patrol wagon was called and the body removed to the State street Morgue. La Point gave himself up, and was held as a prisoner by the order of the Coroner.

FOUGHT FOR HIS LIFE.

A Boy's Terrible Struggle With a Mad Dog Near Evansville, Ind.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 7.—About 3 o'clock yesterday as a son of Mr. Graff, a farmer who resides in the neighborhood of this city, was crossing a field he was attacked by a rabid dog belonging to a neighbor. The dog sprang upon young Graff and a regular rough-and-tumble fight took place, the ground being badly torn up for an area of twelve feet square. Had not the screams of the boy attracted the attention of a hired man the dog would have torn him to pieces. As it was, the thumb of the right hand was nearly bitten off; both arms were fearfully lacerated and the flesh was torn from the left thigh. The hired man struck the dog over the head with a club, stunning him and causing him to relinquish his hold. Upon recovering from the blow the animal turned and ran toward the house, taking refuge under a smoke-house. The hired man procured a gun and killed him. This is the third mad dog that has been killed in the same neighborhood the past three or four days. The animal was a large Newfoundland. Graff is not expected to live.

CITIZEN TRAIN'S FAST.

Will Continue It for 100 Days—Another Children's Frolic.

elegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

W YORK, May 7.—Citizen Train seems determined to continue his freakish fast for an even hundred days. He was remarkably chipper and jovial last evening after his eighteen days' fast, and pleased with the success of his lecture Sunday night.

"I am all right, and shall go right ahead with my fast for 100 days," he said.

He drinks coffee or orangeade occasionally, and that is his only sustenance. His mail is filled with letters from all sorts of people on all sorts of subjects, but mostly begging him to let up on the fast business. Saturday Mr. Train will take a large number of his pet children out to the park for a ramble and general good time.

THE "QUITTERS" RETURN

PRESIDENT VON DER AHE AND HIS CONQUERED HEROES HOME AGAIN.

What They Have to Say of the Kansas City Series—All Declare They Did Their Best, but Were Outlucked—Games Elsewhere—Racing at Various Points—Sporting News.

Second-Baseman Robinson.

PRESIDENT CHRIS Von der Ahe and the "quitters" arrived home early this morning, fresh from the Waterloo at Kansas City. The Browns do not enjoy the way the people here have been talking of their play in Kansas City, and Mr. Von der Ahe and all his players claim they did their best in the games and lost purely through hard luck. The Browns' President still remains firm in his resolve to make Robinson pay the fine imposed on him, and the players are out-spoken in declaring that they think the fine unjust. As yet the matter seems no nearer a settlement than ever, despite the fact that the second baseman and his employer are now in the same city.

PRESIDENT VON DER AHE.

"I will never remit that fine," remarked Mr. Von der Ahe. "He deserved it, and it must stand. It is foolishness to talk about my giving in to him. If I did such a thing as that I would have trouble with my players every day, and I might as well get out of the business. Robinson will play with the team soon and be glad of the chance to do it. You will see that what I say will come true. Under no circumstances, however, will I remit the fine."

"Suppose he refuses to play with the club, what will you do, expel him?"

"That is what I will do, but I will wait a few days to give him a chance to resume his position on the team."

"Have you the power to expel him without the consent of the Board of Arbitration?"

"Most assuredly I have."

"Would you be willing to compromise the matter?"

"No. Robinson swore at and abused that old gate-keeper in the presence of gentlemen and ladies who were entering the park at the time. To make matters worse, he had on his uniform when he did it, so that everybody could see he was a member of the team. It made me very angry to hear that he had used such language to the old man in the presence of ladies. I am determined to put a stop to the use of such language on the field or in the park. I think Robinson certainly deserved the fine. Perhaps I did wrong in speaking to him about it while he was on the players' bench near the grand stand in the hearing of others, but I was so angry I could not wait, and I think any other man would have acted the same under similar circumstances. But what I said to Robinson was not so bad, and it is not that but the fine which hurts. He would rather be hit with a bat than to be made to go down into his pocket and pull out $25. It has been on paying the fine that he has kicked straight along."

"Then if somebody else paid the $25 for him you think everything would be all right?"

"I would not accept it from anybody else. Robinson must pay it out of his own pocket, and all the players who went up on that late Missouri Pacific train to Kansas City will have to pay their own fares. I will not buy them passage on one line and pay for sleeping-car berths Pitcher Chamberlain. for them all and have them take another train. No, indeed, they will have to pay for taking that other train."

"What was the trouble with the team's play in Kansas City?"

"It was all hard luck. I never saw such luck as that Kansas City club had. Besides the grounds there are the worst I ever saw. They are laid out so that the sun shines in all the players' eyes. Why the right fielder ought to wear smoked glasses. That is a fact. McCarthy had to buy himself a pair with which to play. They use the park for a shooting grounds, too, and it is all full of holes. Of course the home club is used to playing there and have an advantage in that respect over visiting teams. This talk about the Browns not trying to play is all wrong. They did their best, but I never saw such luck as the Kansas City club had. You have seen scratch hits made, what they call wind hits, well those are the kind the Cowboys were making all the time. It was all wind hitting. They would make little hits that would happen to fall just out of a player's reach. That was the way they did their batting. They knocked both King and Chamberlain out of the box and I know that these men were pitching their best. I have some knowledge which I do not care to mention for publication that convinces me that King would never have entered a scheme to lose the games even if the other players did. Of course he had excuses for the way he was batted, as players always have, but it was merely lucky hitting."

"Is it true that you fined the players for not taking the train and for poor playing?"

"Not yet. I will meet them to-morrow and we will then have an investigation. Some of the players were left at the depot by accident, I am quite certain, but I will endeavor to find the ringleaders and punish them. They played the best ball they could, I think, and I will say furthermore that you will see more pitchers knocked out of the box this season than ever before, because of the new rules."

"Will you see Robinson to-day?"

"No. Unless he comes to see me. I do not intend to go after him. He will have to come to me, and you may add that since this trouble occurred I have learned of more base ball cranks than I ever knew existed. If they would come out and patronize the games instead of dictating to me how I should run my club we would not have to play to empty benches. If they want to run the club let them buy it out. I am willing" is end the Cowboys in the two first innings of the first game for ten runs and had to be taken out of the box, remarked:

"The claim that we were not trying to play is all nonsense. The players did not think Robinson should be fined and felt sore about it, but that did not prevent them from playing the best ball they could. When we left the depot that night after first declaring we would not go the boys remarked that if we should happen to play poorly everybody in St. Louis would declare we were throwing the games because of this trouble between Robinson and Mr. Von der Ahe. We are not foolish enough to do such a thing as that, as we all know what the penalty would be. It breaks the team up to have Robinson out, as he can fill the infield and besides he was a great player and he was always working some point to win. Then the grounds up there were so bad that nobody can play on them. They told us that all visiting clubs played the same miserable fielding game. We were off in our play, as a club occasionally gets, and at any other time it would not be noticed particularly, but coming right on top of this Robinson matter it of course seemed very strange. The fact is we were playing rotten ball, but could not help it. O'Neill, who rarely muffs a fly, made four errors in the first game, although only charged with two. In Sunday's game he really made six errors. It could not be helped, however. He was merely off in his play. They batted my delivery no matter what I would do. They have a strong team and can beat any club in the country as they are playing at present on those grounds. They are used to them and it is a great advantage. The people up there think they are sure pennant winners, but I don't think the team will ever finish above fourth place if they do that well."

Third Baseman Latham.

"Was it not strange that they should bat you for ten runs in two innings when no other club has ever approached that record? Would you not be willing to bet that no team could make ten runs off you with the Browns at your back in two innings?"

"It was strange that they should bat me so and I would be willing to bet everything I have that no team in the world could make that many runs off me, yet they did it. Just why or how they came to do it I do not know. No matter how or where I put the ball they hit. I tried everything on them, but it was no use. It was a streak of batting that is not likely be able to duplicate in five years."

"Did you have any trouble with Mr. Von der Ahe?"

"We were told he had fined us $50 each, but he has not notified us yet. We played the best ball we knew how and there was no cause for any fine, and I don't think the boys will stand it—at least they say they won't, and I know I won't."

"Will there be any kick on paying your fares to Kansas City?"

"The way the boys feel at present I guess they would kick on paying anything. I hope everything will be settled, however, and Robinson returned to second again, as it will be a great honor if we can win this pennant again, and I believe we can with the team harmonious and united."

TIP O'NEILL.

The long left-fielder of the champions, who distinguished himself in Kansas City as an error-maker, said:

"I think that charge made that the Browns threw the games at Kansas City is a most serious one and is certainly unjust. It is no trifling matter to charge a club with crookedness. We played miserable ball up there, it is true, but it could not be helped. We simply played in hard luck. It was such a streak as any team is apt to have, only we had ours at a most unfortunate time. The grounds up there are so bad that no one club can do itself justice on them, but of course the home team has the advantage of being used to it. As Gaffney, the umpire, remarked, if he thought there was any crooked ball-playing there he would stop the game and report the matter to the Association, as would be his duty. He was convinced, however, that we were doing our best. Of course the boys think Robinson has not been treated properly, and sympathize with him, but we played our best. We heard we had all been fined $50 each, but do not know whether it is true. If we have it is certainly unjust, but I do not know what we can do about it, as Mr. Von der Ahe can hold it out of our salaries. Whether the members of the team would continue to play ball for him I do not know. They are all of age, however, and ought to be able to act for themselves. The hits the Kansas Citys made were all scratches."

Catcher Milligan.

LATHAM,

the Browns' third baseman, who also distinguished himself by miserable play at Kansas City, said: "It was all hard luck that beat us, and those miserable grounds. I played a rotten game the first day and did worse yesterday. The charge that the team did not try to play is all bosh. We did our best. It is strange that King and Chamberlain should have been batted so hard, but the Kansas City club certainly hit them on their merits."

JACK MILLIGAN.

When the big, good-natured catcher of the Browns was asked for an explanation he said: "They have a fine team up there. That fellow Long plays about as good a game at short as any man in the country. We were playing in hard luck and they were having phenomenally good luck and bested us, that is all there is to it. We did our best, but were unable to beat them. Base ball, you know, is always very uncertain."

Yesterday's Games.

The Browns managed to win a game at Kansas City yesterday despite a seeming determination on their part to lose. Eleven to 9 was the final score and the Browns had a number of their runs literally forced upon them. Sullivan, who pitched for Kansas City, was batted hard and Chamberlain, who was in the box for the Browns, was also hit freely. Hoover started in to catch for Kansas City, but in the latter part of the game gave way to Gunson. Boyle was the St. Louis backstop. Base hits: Kansas City, 11; St. Louis, 17. Errors: Kansas City, 2; St. Louis, 4.

Cincinnati won from Louisville yesterday by a score of 8 to 7. Mullane started in to pitch for Cincinnati, but was relieved by Duryea. Baldwin was the catcher of the team. Stratton and Cook were the Louisville battery. Base hits—Cincinnati, 8; Louisville, 12. Errors—Cincinnati, 6; Louisville, 7.

LEAGUE GAMES.

Washington lost a game to Boston yesterday on the Washington's grounds, and received the worst drubbing it ever received, the score being 23 to 8 in favor of Boston. Nineteen hits with a total of twenty-eight bases was the day's record for Boston. Brouthers made a double, a triple and a home run, the latter going over the center field fence for the first time in the history of the grounds. The batteries were: Bo[illegible]—Radbourne, pitch; Bennett, catch. W[illegible]ington—Healy and Keefe, pitch; Mack, [illegible]oston, 19; Wa[illegible]

Pittsburg defeated Indianapolis on their own grounds by a score of 7 to 6. The game was interesting for its closeness and some sharp playing was done on both sides. Conway and Carroll were the battery for Pittsburg and Schreyer and Myers for Indianapolis. Base hits—Pittsburg, 8; Indianapolis, 12. Errors—Pittsburg, 1; Indianapolis, 8.

To-Morrow's Game.

The Second championship game of the present series between Columbus and the Browns will take place to-morrow at Sportsman's Park. The Columbus team has been doing excellent work thus far and the Browns will have a mighty hard time of it in defeating them—if they can do it. Chamberlain will pitch to-morrow for the Browns. Widner will probably pitch for Columbus. Play will be called at 4 p. m.

President Day and Tim Keefe.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, May 7.—President Day and Tim Keefe had a conference yesterday, but the pitcher did not sign. Mr. Day would give him no assurance that his salary for each day he has remained away from the club would not be deducted. Mr. Day also informed Keefe that he intended to sign Daily of the Jersey Citys in a day or so.

Base-Ball Notes.

The Browns will play at home till May 27.

The Columbus team is quartered at the Lindell.

Frank Meek, the young catcher signed by the Browns, will catch one of the Columbus games. He is quite a back-stop.

In order to accommodate patrons of the game, President Von der Ahe has placed admission and grand stand tickets at Schottmueller's, 206 North Broadway.

The New York Walking Match.

NEW YORK, May 7.—The attendance at the walking match is still very slim this morning; not more than 100 people were present at 10 o'clock. Many of the walkers appear to have gotten their second wind and there seems to be no more of the strained look of yesterday. Cartwright still maintains the lead with Hegelman close behind. The pace, however, seems to be too fast for the latter. W. Smith promises to make a good record, while Connors is sure of a place.

Twelve o'clock score: Hegelman, 162 miles; Cartwright, 166; Connor, 153; Herty, 161; Day, 149; Smith, 154; Golden, 148; Burns, 146; Glick, 149; Fitzgerald's Unknown, 132; Hughes, 148; Adams, 136.

Carney and McAuliffe.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, May 7. Articles of agreement were received at the Police Gazette office yesterday from Jem Carney of Birmingham, England, for a fight to a finish, under London rules, with Champion Jack McAuliffe, which stipulates that the match be £500, open to £1,000 a side, the battle to occur within 200 miles of London. The date and number of witnesses to the match are to be filled by McAuliffe. Carney posted £200 with the Sporting Life in support of his offer, and if his forfeit is not covered by May 31 the bold Jem will proclaim himself light-weight champion of the world and demand that McAuliffe shall surrender to him the Police Gazette belt. McAuliffe's manager, Billy Madden, was shown Carney's ultimatum. Billy said that Jack paid no attention to any offers for a finish fight under London rules but would be ready to fight Carney a limited number of rounds before any private club in England, and that he will bet £1,000 that Jack will win. But before going to England he will give any light-weight in this country a chance to try his mettle against McAuliffe for a purse in any of the California clubs, and he will bet them $1,000 to $5,000 on the result. Paddy Smith of Brooklyn can have the preference if he will fight.

Nashville Races.

The racing at Nashville yesterday was enjoyable and interesting because of the magnificent weather and the splendid condition of the track.

First race, seven furlongs—Won by St. Albans in 1:29½, with Bridgelight second and Lisbert third. The betting against St. Albans before the race was 7 to 1.

Second race, six furlongs—Meta, first in 1:16; Vattell, second, and T. J. Rusk, third.

Third race, six furlongs—Won by Bravo in 1:15¾, with Kedar Kahn, second, and Fred Wooley, third.

Fourth race, nine-sixteenths of a mile—Won by Lady Blackburn in 57½, Millie William second and Lillie Kinney third.

Fifth race, mile and seventy yards—Endurer winning easily in 1:46½, Comedy second and Headlad third.

Last race, five furlongs—Won by Prince Ponzo in 1:03¾, with Watterson second and Timothy third.

The Lexington Races.

At Lexington yesterday the racing was fair and the track fast.

First race, purse for 2-year-olds, five furlongs—Lord Peyton first, 1:04½; Sunny Brook second, Faker third, Gladstone fourth.

Second race, purse, one mile—Queen of Trumps first in 1:45, Cassius second, Wahsatch third.

Third race, Blue Ribbon Stakes, sweepstakes for 3-year-olds, one mile and half—Once Again, first, 2:39¾; Bootmaker second.

Fourth race, purse, seven furlongs—Stuart, first, 1:28½; Amos A., second; Phobus, third.

Fifth race, purse, six furlongs—Cheeney, first, 1:15¾; Burnett, second.

A STORY WITH A MORAL.

On Jasper there sometimes alights a stray fly,
Is the talk that we hear as we pass people by,
And the reason seems plain, but we'd like to know why
There can't be a stray fly on Jasper.

Now Jasper's a myth, that may mean you or me,
Or some other chap in this land of the free,
He may be very smart—in fact, "'way up in G,"
Still, the flies sometimes linger on Jasper.

There's the broker on 'Change who is after the cash,
If the wheat market's down, he bulls it with dash,
But the bears sometimes claw him for being so rash,
And then there's a few flies on Jasper.

There are men who sell Clothing on great Broadway street;
How vainly they try our low prices to meet.
They give us free "ads," and admit themselves beat,
And they howl when a fly lights on Jasper.

Now, where is the moral that ends this quaint rhyme?
Is a question you'll ask—which we'll answer in time.
It is this—don't be rash, or you surely will find
There is sometimes a stray fly on Jasper.

In fact, we are all liable to make mistakes occasionally—a treacherous banana peeling precipitates the sedate citizen to Mother Earth in undignified haste, and a loose suspender button causes a cold chill to creep down your spinal column as you join the madding throng in the mazy waltz, with your favorite young lady in tow (excuse the naughty-cal phrase), but, like the gay and festive mosquito who presents his bill in the early autumn, we get there just the same—on

RIVER THIEVES CAUGHT.

A Humorous Explanation of the Morrillton Affair—Arkansas Affairs.

HELENA, May 7.—Marshal Fitzpatrick arrested Duncan C. Smith, a negro convict, and Morris Holmes, an escaped negro convict, on the Hutchinson platform, eighteen miles below here, yesterday morning. They were river thieves. The Marshal found shoes, clothing, tobacco, whisky, twenty-six watches and a quantity of jewelry.

LITTLE ROCK, May 7.—It seems that the trouble at Morrillton was caused by Sheriff Coblentz's timidity. He had made personal remarks about Bentley of which Bentley heard, and Saturday they saw each other on opposite sides of the street. Bentley had a gun which he was taking home from a repair shop and Coblentz thought the gun was meant for him. Bentley called to him, but Coblentz made his way through a crowd and went home. He was advised to leave town, but he said he did not think he could get safely to the depot. The Mayor offered him a body guard, but he would not leave the house until after dark, then he took a freight train and came to Little Rock.

MINERS RECRUIT THEIR FORCES.

The Alleged Slayer of Prof. Matchett Surrendered—Illinois Items.

SPRING VALLEY, May 7.—The miners held a meeting yesterday and induced the middlevein men to quit work. The middle-vein men use machines and are paid by the day. The others are paid by the ton. If any of the operators endeavor to bring in non-union miners there will be trouble.

GALENA, May 7.—George Skene, who is charged with having killed Prof. Matchett of Hanover, was surrendered by his brother to the sheriff at Hanover, and he was at once brought to this city, for safe keeping. It was a wise precaution for if he had been kept here long the mob that quickly organized would have lynched him. Skene declares his innocence and says he can proove it. Prof. Matchett was buried yesterday afternoon, and the body was followed to the grave by a procession of people a mile long.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Will Sugg, colored, was fatally shot by Wm. J. Alva at Morganfield, Ky., yesterday.

The Jackson Lumber Co.'s saw mills at Lockport, N. Y., burned last night. Loss, $30,000.

Peter Even, a farmer living four miles from East Dubuque, Io., was fatally shot by Albert Vogt, an 18-year-old boy yesterday.

S. D. Williams, general agent for the Lieberling & Co.'s Empire Machine of Akron, O., cut his throat at Fort Branch, Ind., yesterday.

Ed Coyle, who runs a gambling saloon in Columbus, Ind., assaulted Ed Brinkley, with a poker Sunday night and inflicted dangerous injuries.

Samuel Brannan, the man whom Brigham Young selected to found a Mormon Empire on the coast, died last night at Escondido, San Diego County, Cal.

Mrs. Rosa Fischer made a murderous assault with a club upon H. Hill, a well known young man of Huntingburg, Ind. She claims he insulted her. She was placed under a $2,000 bond.

T. L. Blakely, an old miner living in the little town of Sandusky, Ala., was murdered last night by two railroad men named Vate and Hays, while trying to defend his wife from insult.

St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, three miles east of Vincennes, Ind., was burned to the ground yesterday. Sister Bridget was the only person injured, and she had her hand burned. Loss, $50,000.

A boat in which two soldiers named Arthur Chappell and Peter Staubenett were out rowing in the Missouri River near Leavenworth, Kan., yesterday afternoon, was capsized and Chappell was drowned.

A freight train, carrying Libby Prison from Richmond to Chicago was wrecked near Maysville, Ky., yesterday and the remains of the war relic scattered about. People flocked to the scene of the accident all day and carried off bricks and lumber as mementoes.

Ada Ambers, a 12-year-old colored girl, was being baptized by immersion near Raleigh, N. C., yesterday by a colored preacher. He let go of her when he ducked her and she was drowned. The preacher would have fared badly at the hands of the crowd had not several friends taken him to a place of safety.

At Lafayette, La., the county seat of Lafayette Parish, yesterday a band of regulators from the country districts, armed with Winchester rifles, surrounded the polls at which a municipal election was held and issued an ultimatum that no negro should vote. The Sheriff offered to take the negroes to the polls but they were afraid to accept his offer.

A Bold Robbery.

CADILLAC, Mich., May 7.—Three unknown men entered McGovern's Hotel at Lake City late Sunday night and offered a $10 bill in payment for cigars. McGovern opened the safe for change when the men sprang upon and overpowered him. They took $1,300 in currency from the safe and escaped, leaving McGovern insensible.

Funeral of George W. Herbert.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon the funeral of George W. Herbert occurred from his late residence, 2501 Spruce street. The interment was in Calvary Cemetery. He was for many years a detective on the city force and later in the Missouri Pacific Secret Service. His last work was for the Illinois Central. Consumption was the disease which caused his death. He was a valuable man in his profession and was highly regarded by a very large circle of friends.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.
This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low-test, short-weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans.

My little boy, 5 years old, was sick with a disease for which doctors had no name. The nails came off his fingers, and the fingers came off to the middle joint. For 3 years he suffered dreadfully; is now getting well, and I am satisfied Swift's Specific is the chief cause of his improvement.

POISONED BY A CALF—My little boy broke out with sores and ulcers, the result of the saliva of a calf coming in contact with a cut finger. The ulcers were deep and painful and showed no inclination to heal. I gave him Swift's Specific, and he is now well.
